Thomas Corona

Tom,
I can't say much because I really don't know you well. But I want to wish you all the fun a guy can have this summer. Good Luck in 1A.

Judy.

Dear Tom,
To a great friend who is a part of many junior memories - I hope senior year will bring many more good times for us. Be happy always.

Fondly,
Carla

Dear Tom,
I'm not good with words
I'm not a poet
But I'll try anyhow;
Thanks for everything
you've done for me this year.
This will be the most memorable year in my life. You really made this year worthwhile for me.
Con mucho amor, margie

HIERARCHY

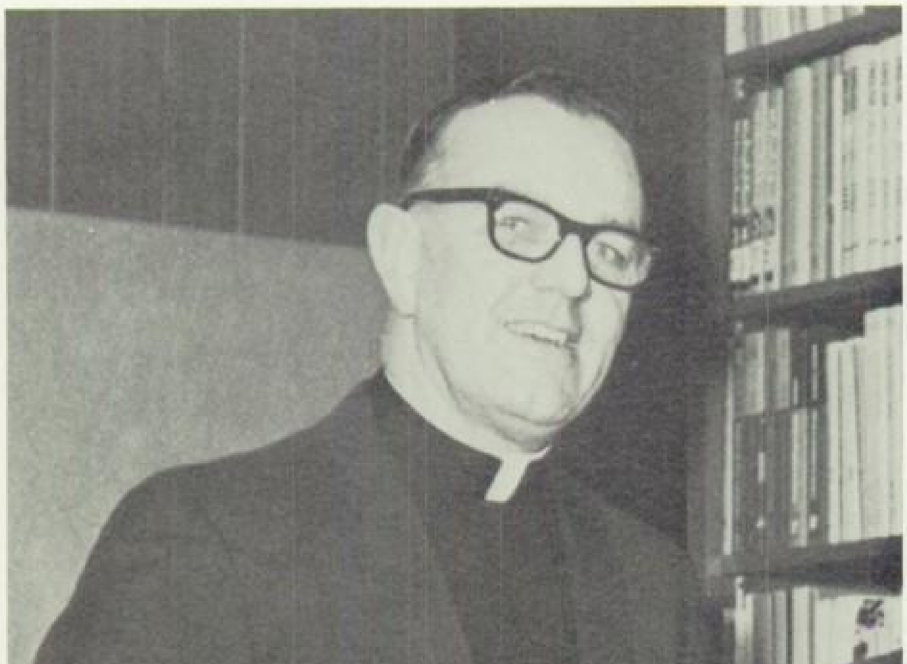
Although Christ's Vicar on earth is not a visibly integral part of our everyday activities, he is spiritually united to all of Immaculata's students. Throughout the year, Pope Paul has been an inspirational force prompting our love of God and Church. His encouraging messages to youth provide us with motivation in all our trials and tribulations.

The Diocese of Trenton, our thriving Catholic metropolis, is under the constant care of Bishop George W. Ahr. Bishop Ahr has served as an interested leader desirous of our success as a spiritual and scholastic institution ever since Immaculata opened more than eight years ago. Auxiliary Bishop John C. Reiss and the Very Reverend Thomas J. Frain, Superintendent of Schools, also display attitudes of solicitude in our behalf. The selfless dedication and untiring efforts of these men of God provide the basis for the binding force which incorporates all of us from Pope Paul VI down to the youngest freshman at Immaculata in the true spirit of love for God and Church.

HIS HOLINESS POPE PAUL VI.

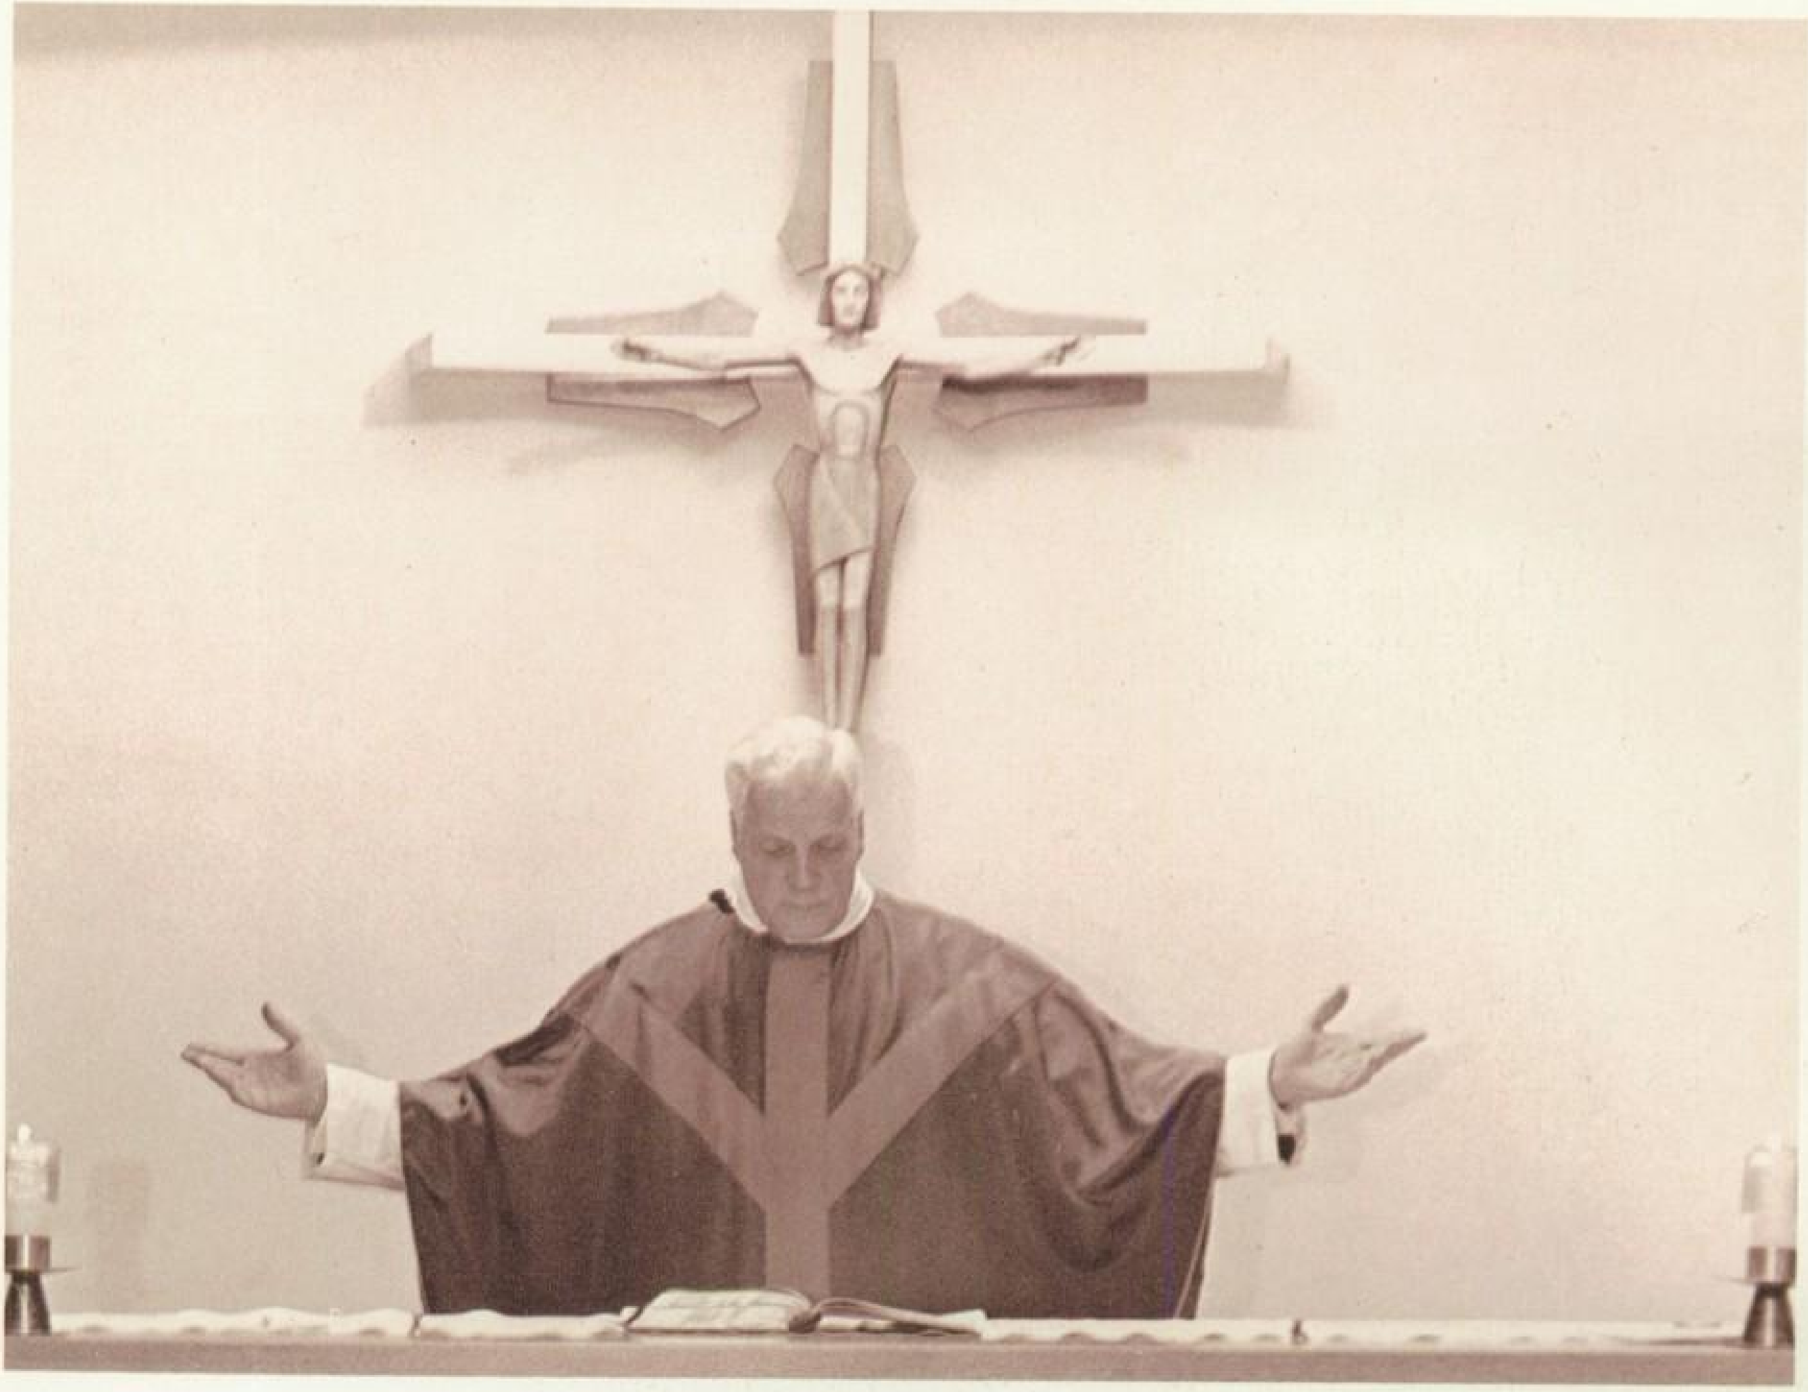
BISHOP GEORGE W. AHR, S.T.D.

AUXILIARY BISHOP JOHN C. REISS, J.C.D.



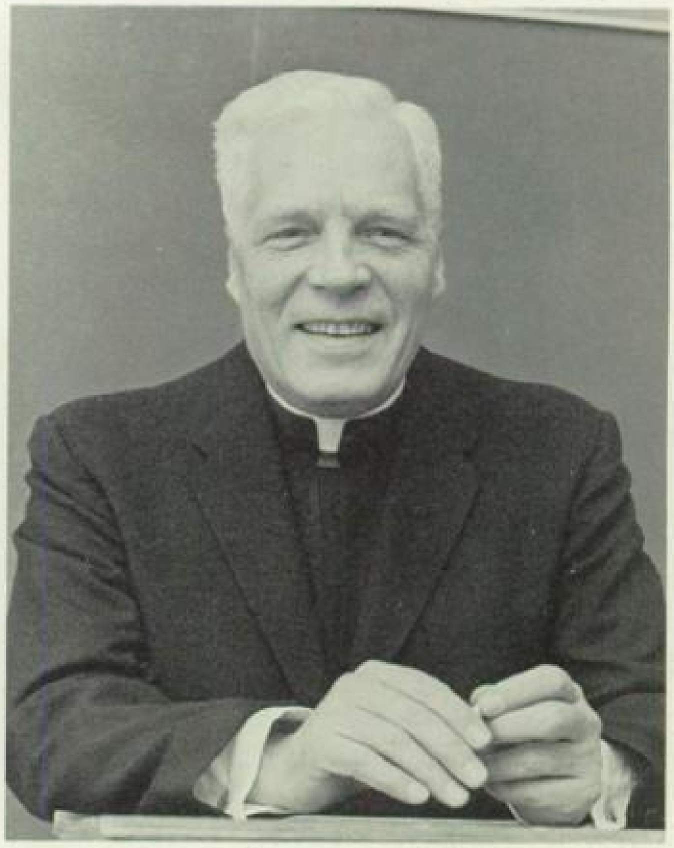
VERY REVEREND THOMAS J. FRAIN, PH.D.
Superintendent of Schools

MR. JOHN CAPPOLA
Assistant Superintendent of Schools



PRIEST: The Very Reverend Eugene B. Kelly, Pastor of Immaculate Conception Church, Director of Immaculata.

ADMINISTRATOR: A happily involved and highly amused Monsignor Kelly.



TEACHER: A dedicated and knowledgeable instructor.

ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL: Sister Mary Bartholomew, IHM.

Unitas - Caritas is the symbol through which we are all united in love with Monsignor Eugene B. Kelly, Director of Immaculata. He has encouraged us for four years to develop a respect for ourselves which will provide the requisites for future mature Catholic citizenship. These years have been years of growth through the education of the whole man — soul, mind, and body. Monsignor has taught us especially the true meaning of spirit — a spirit which inspires us to reach towards our ideals with a genuine happiness and peace of heart.

Although Mother Maria Pacis, Coordinator of Immaculata, has been with us for only two years, she serves as an inspiration to every one of us. Her smile with its unique aura of peace brightens our days and motivates our activity.

"A friend in need can never be replaced." These words are readily applicable to our principal, Sister Mary Bartholomew. She embodies the essence of true dedication; rarely does she go home before five o'clock on school days. She has taught us the value of listening — something needed in a Little Theater of many talkers. It is not merely a matter of principle, but rather of spontaneous affection and appreciation which incites in us a deep gratitude for her tireless efforts.

CO-ORDINATOR: Mother Maria Pacis IHM.

FRIEND: A cheerful and approachable counselor.

PERSONNEL

The Little Prince once said, "Essential things are invisible to the eye." Oftentimes the essential dedication given by the office, cafeteria, and maintenance personnel goes unrecognized. Their particular endeavors reach beyond typing, cooking, or repairing. It's the part you don't see — maybe an extra thumb tack on the Senior Bulletin Board, the shining touch on the floors, or that pinch of salt to season the french fries — that makes these people special to us. Their concern for us is constantly evidenced and too many times, unappreciated. Whatever their contributions, these members of the various departments have formed a vital part of our high school years; and now as we leave Immaculata, we want very especially to say, "thank you."

SECRETARY: Mrs. Catherine Aloia.

BOOKKEEPER: Mrs. Elena Zorzi.

CAFETERIA PERSONNEL: Ceil Magdziak.

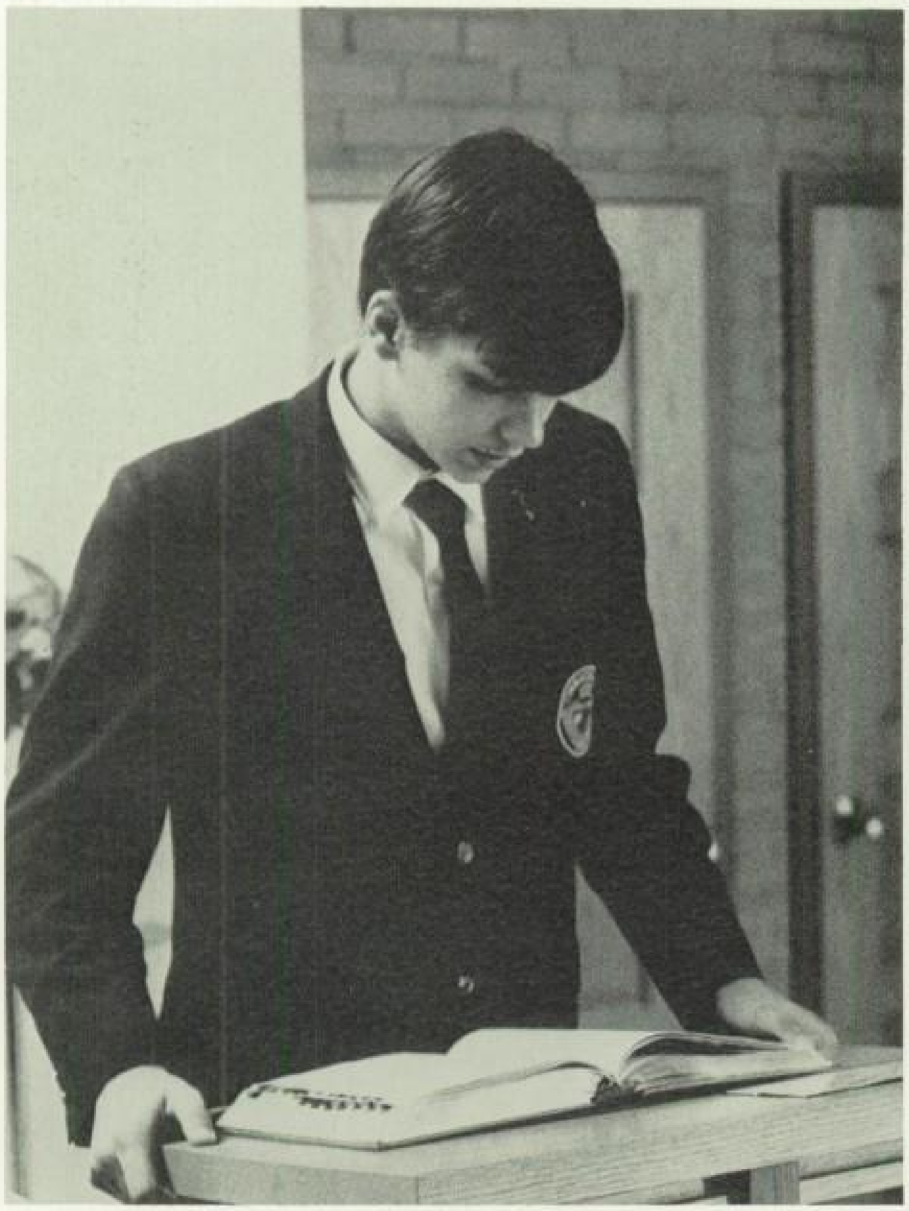
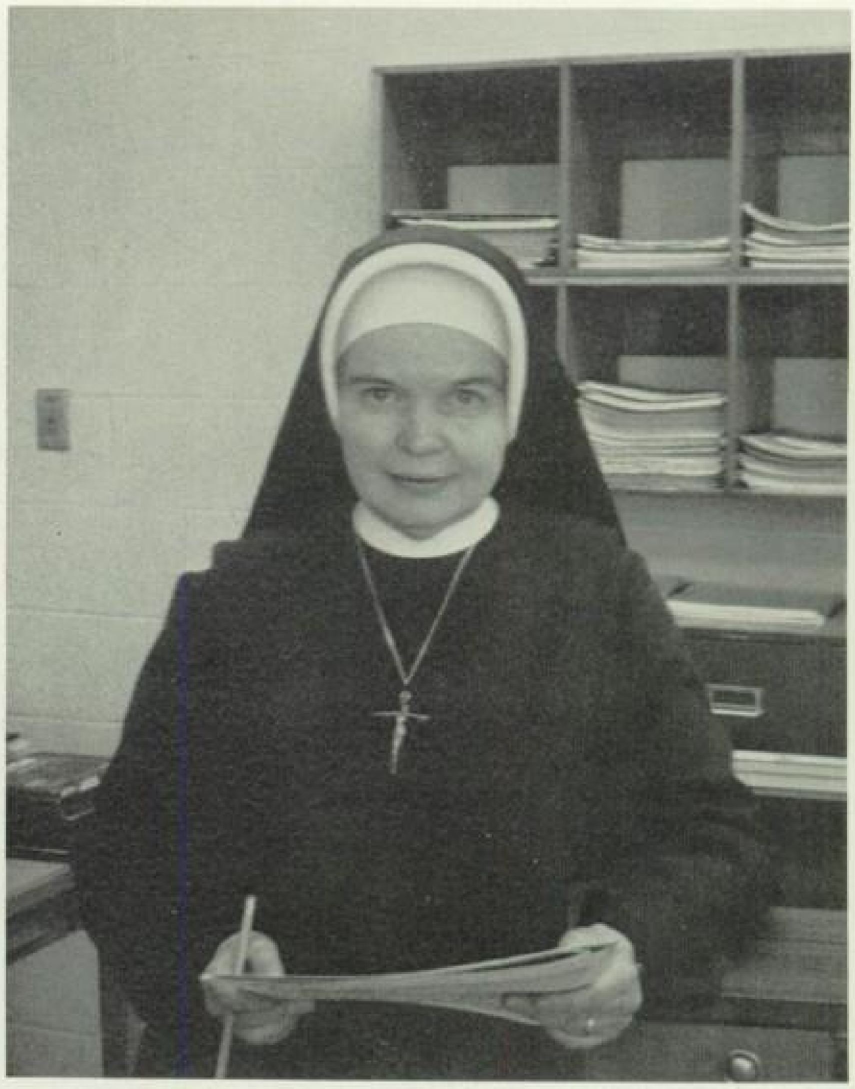
FRESHMEN



A Bible Vigil yields the promise, "Blessed is the man who endures temptation, for when he has been tried, he shall receive the crown of life:" Stephen Hluchanyk.



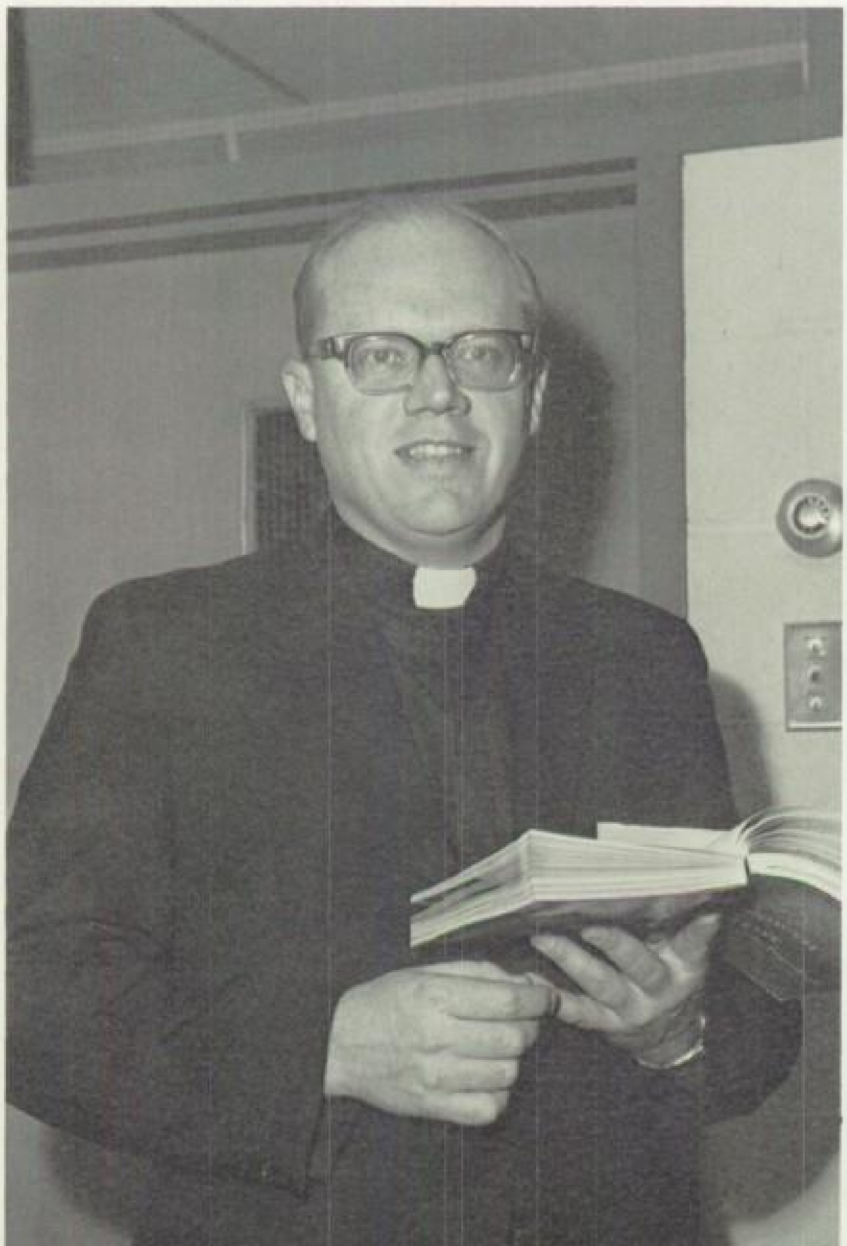
A moment's pause during preparations for the annual Spring Musicale: Sister Ann Bernadette.

Passing the Word of God to a grateful student: Sister Edward Marie, Tim Norris.

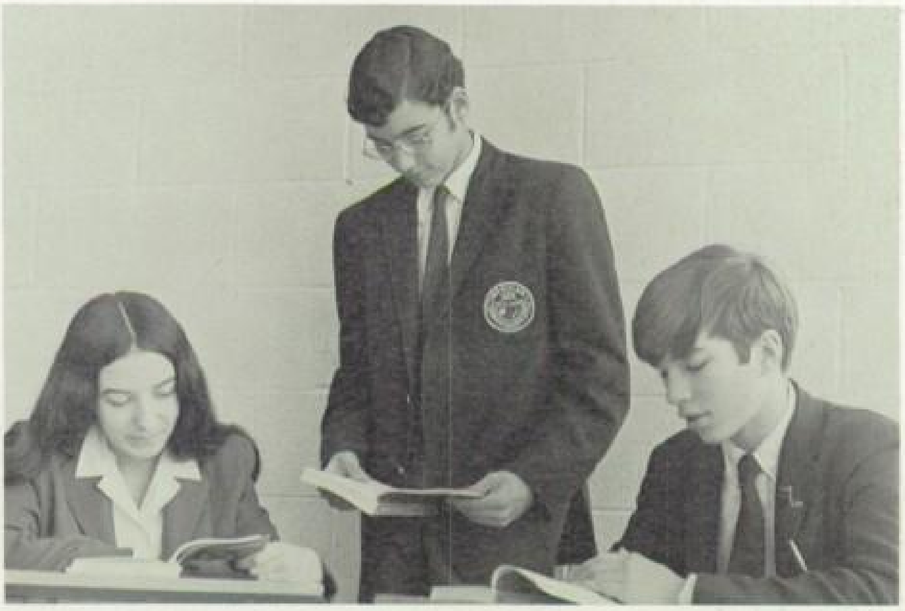
Well, maybe just one more will do it: Mary Jane Melitski.

Arriving with new ideas and interests, the freshmen are a motivating force at Immaculata; they add something new to our school. At the same time, they must channel their energy toward making new discoveries in many different areas of learning. In I.P.S. they study the scientific laws which govern life, while in Religion they learn better ways of living their own lives. Communication is an important part of living, and freshmen learn to communicate not only in English but also in French, Latin, and Spanish. Although difficult at first, they soon become accustomed to learning their new languages and even enjoy the experience. Whether in history or mathematics, gym or health, the freshmen are provided with information which will be invaluable to them in the future. The knowledge they gain and discoveries they make at Immaculata will inevitably lead to making them fuller and better persons by June of '74.

No, boys, hippopotamus is not an example of onomatopoeia: Mrs. Mary Dahms.



Is the use of drugs in today's society moral or immoral: Father Stephen Congdon.



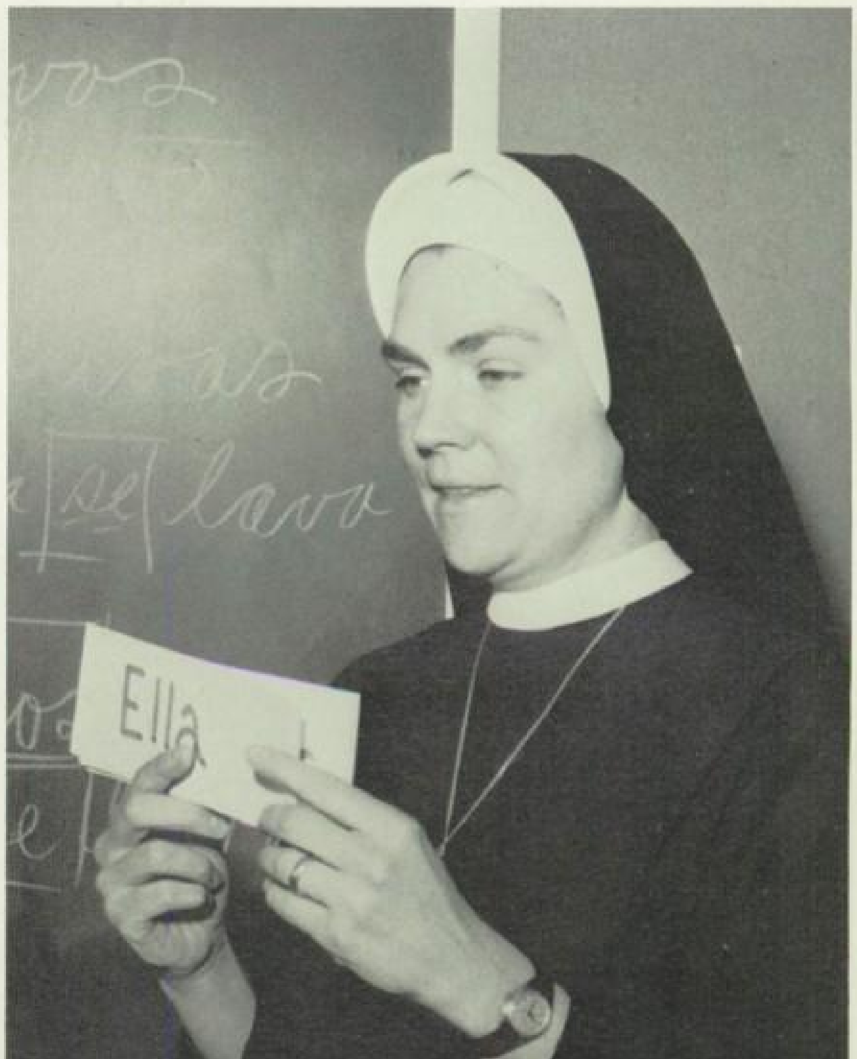
Who says English has to be boring?: Eileen Hourigan, Mike Sauer, Jay Welch.

And Caesar thought he had it rough: Fred Loveland.

Imaginations go to work as Spanish I students listen to tapes describing picturesque Spain: Patrick Bayait, Joanne Killeen, Kurt Shadle.

Dr. Jekyll, Mr. Hyde, or Immaculata's I.P.S. teacher: Mr. Fred Moderski.

Why did I get up this morning . . . : Bill Konneche.

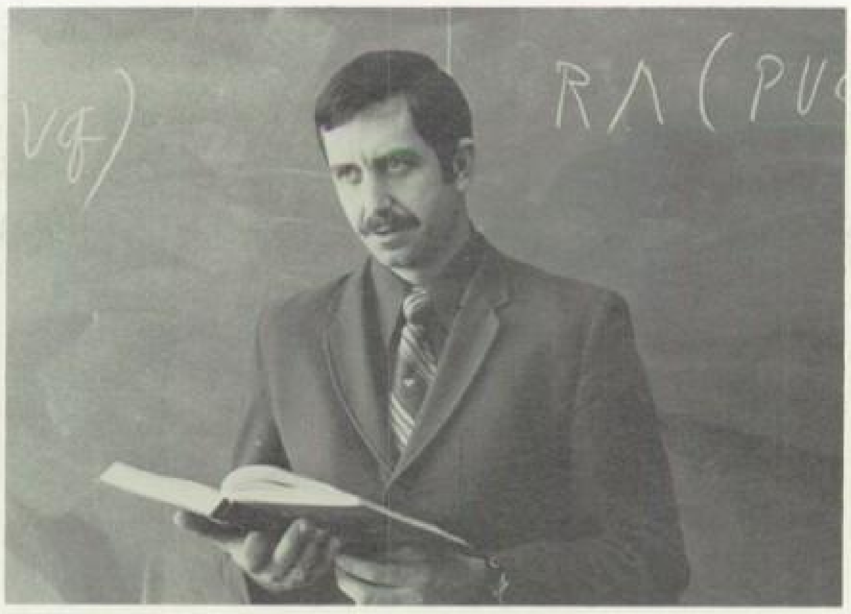


Flash cards make the learning of Spanish I an easier process: Sister Regina Joanne.

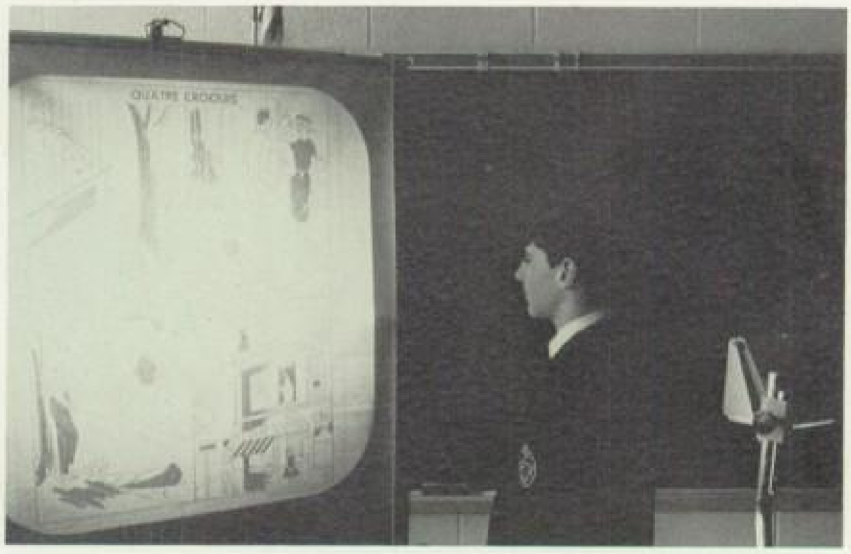
A film on Greece sparks the interest of freshman history students: World History Class.

Voici mon nez.

Si ce n'est pas clair, ce n'est pas Français: Sister Mary Loreto.

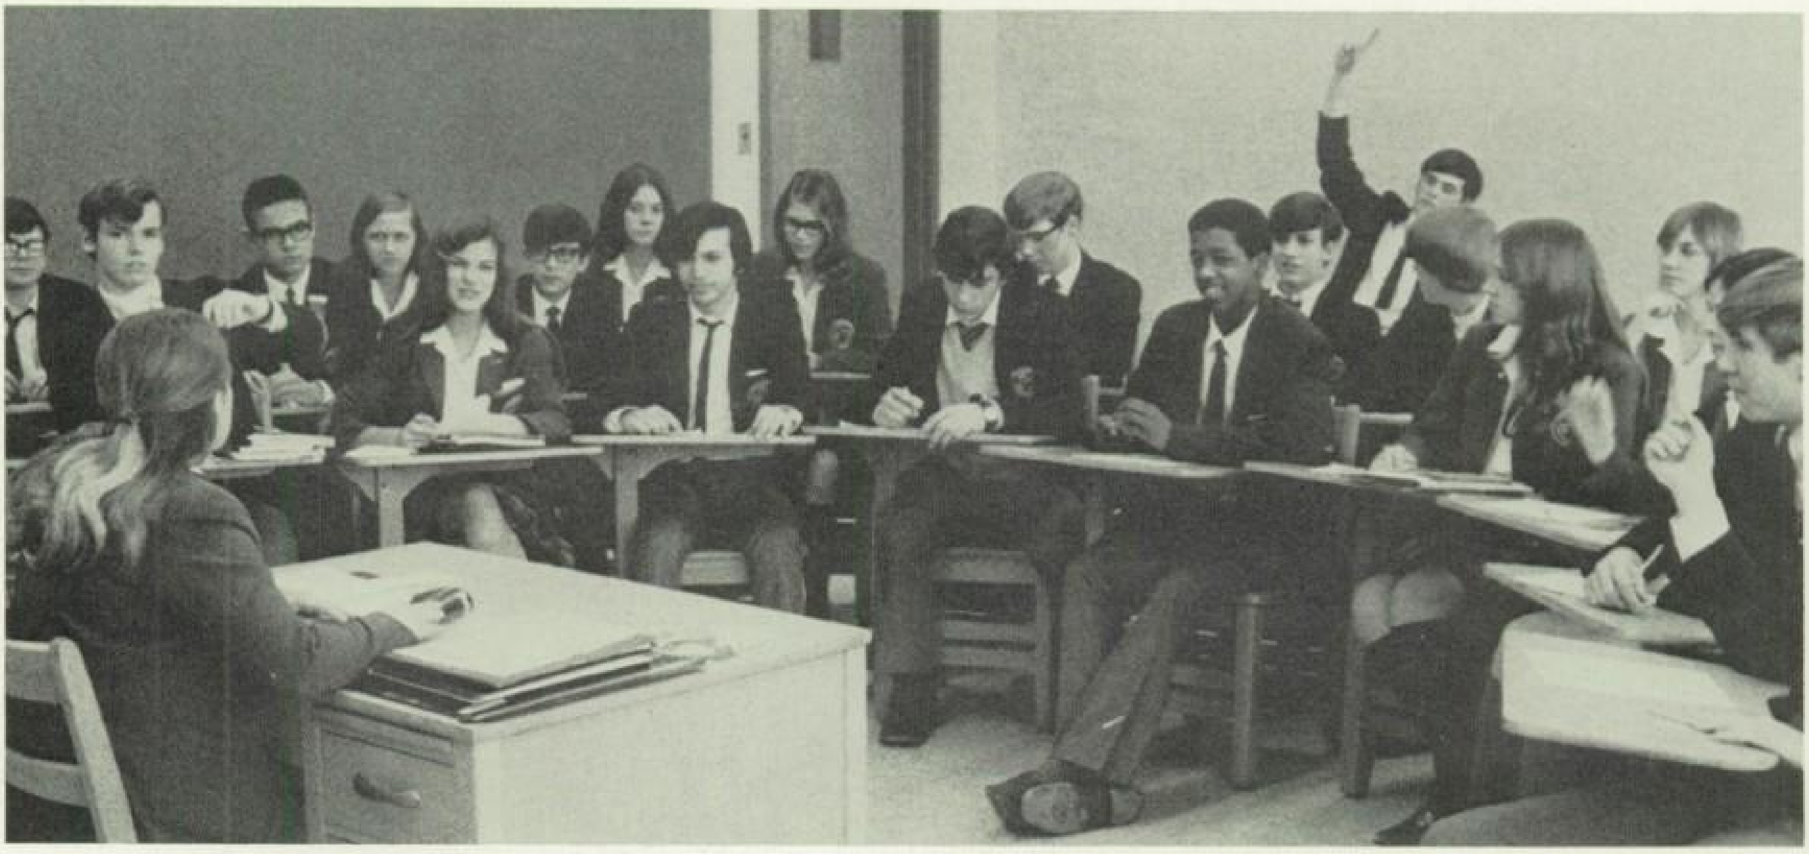


Algebra I teacher painstakingly explains the basic concepts of math: Mr. Lawrence Thomas.



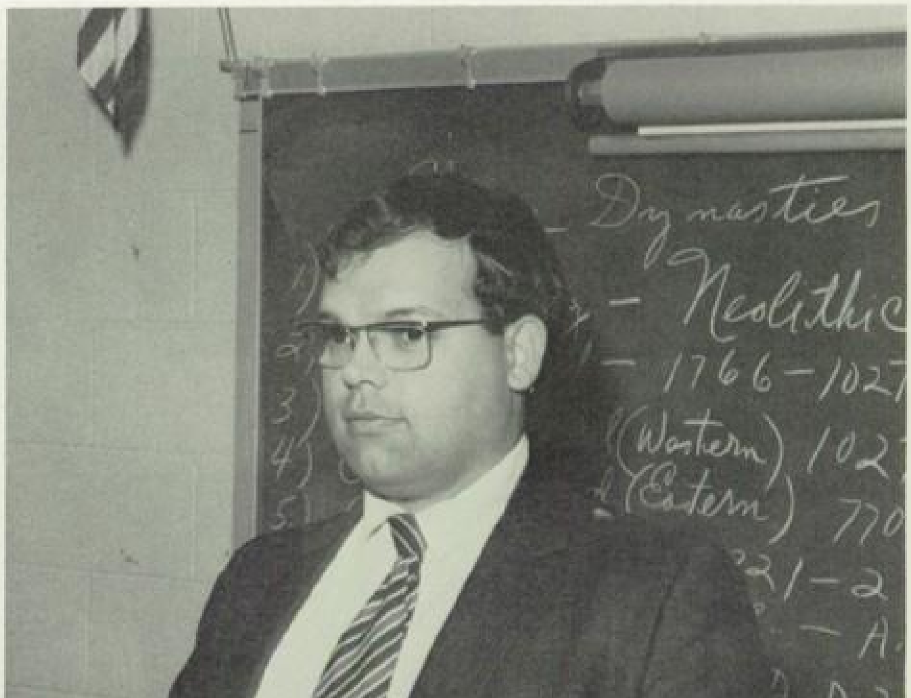
An overhead projector brings a foreign language to life: French I Student.

SOPHOMORES

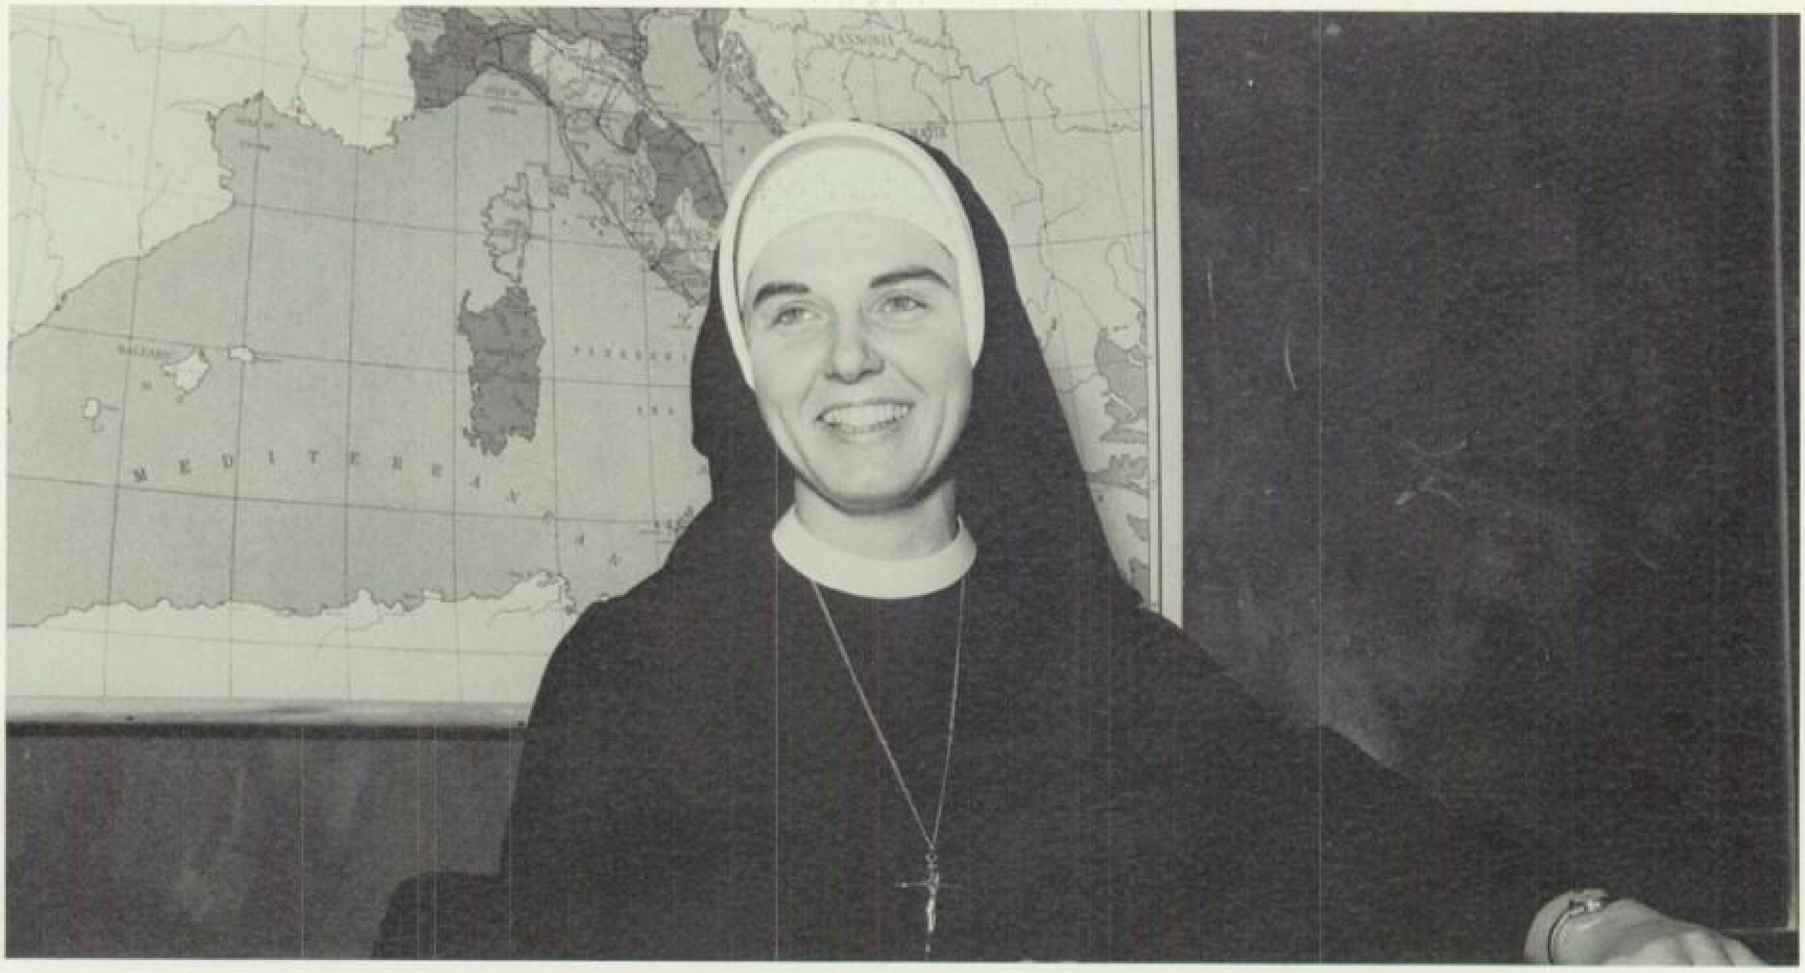


A sophomore Religion class discuss the place of youth in today's society.

Not another card missing!: Sister Angelorum Maria.

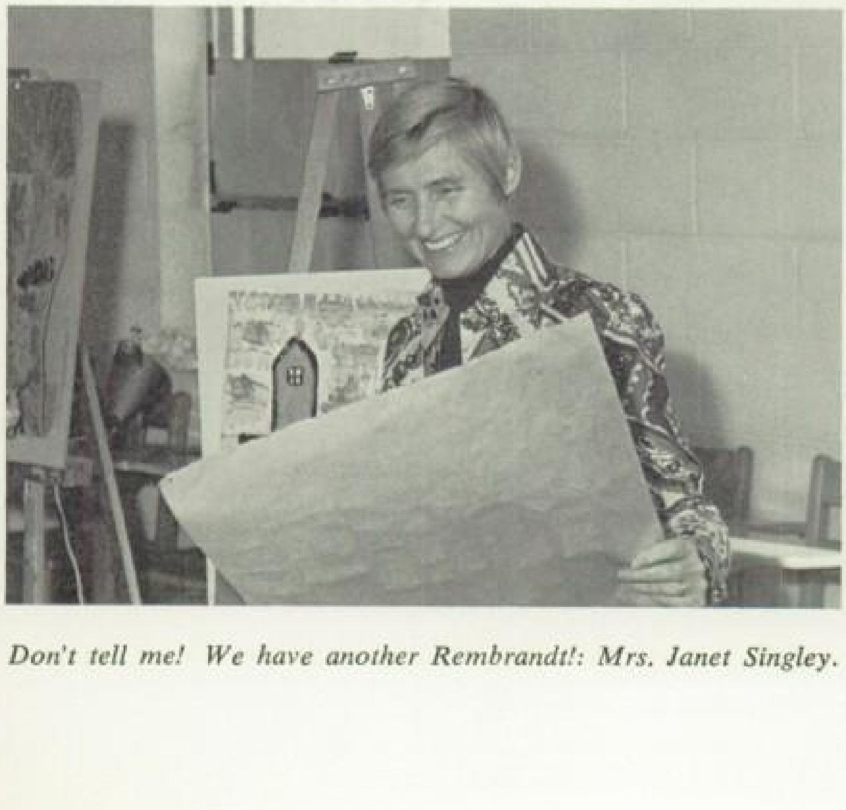


Let me put it to you this way, boys and girls: Mr. Raul Comesanas.

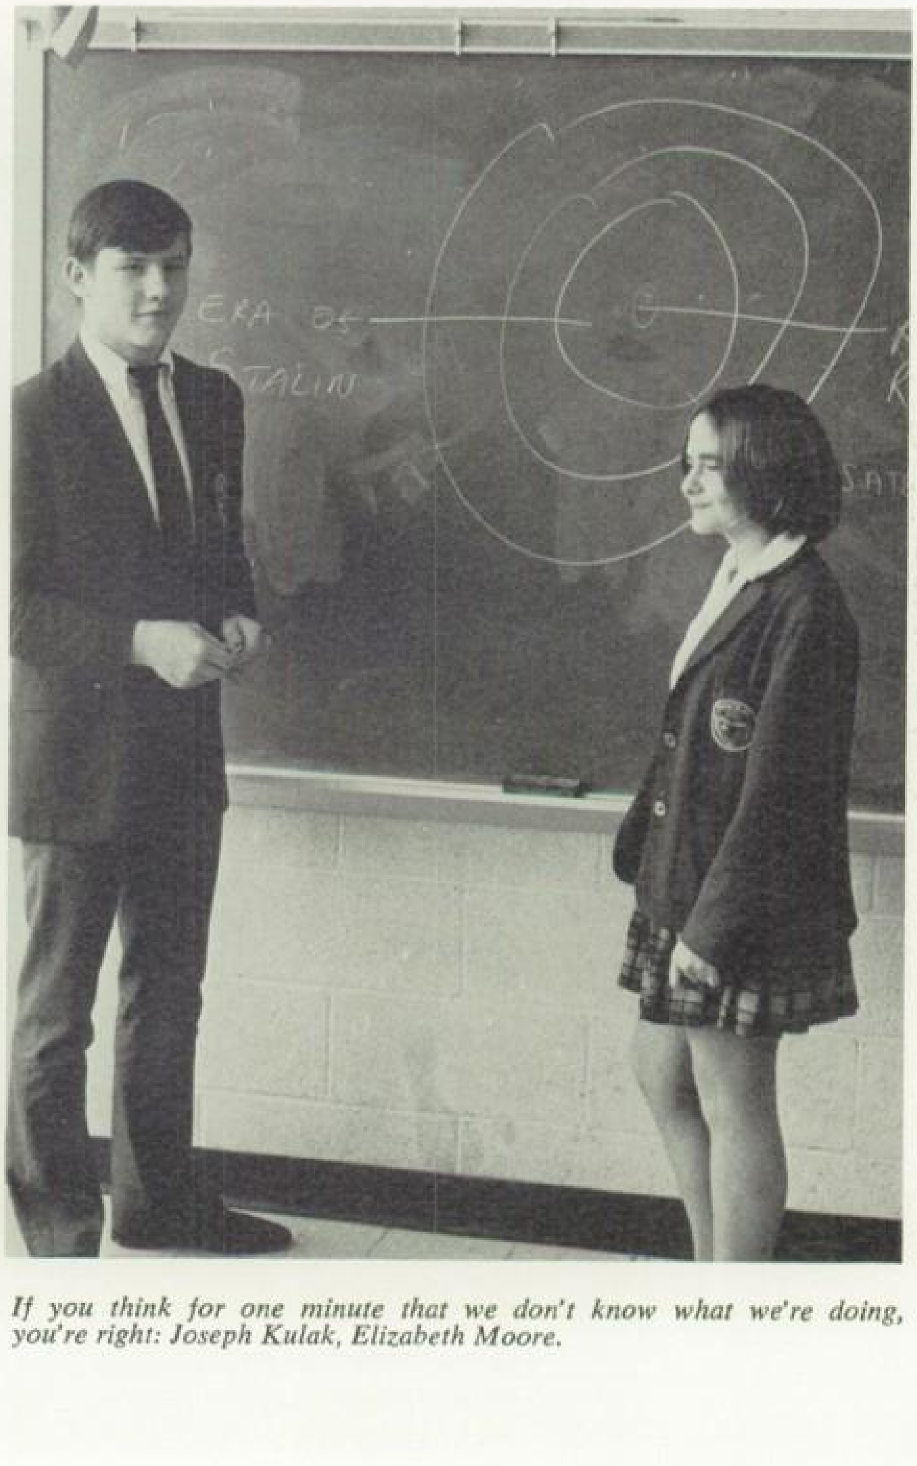


Guess who just won the lottery!: Sister Loretta Margaret.

Je t'aime . . . : Karen Dietz, Edward Dugan.



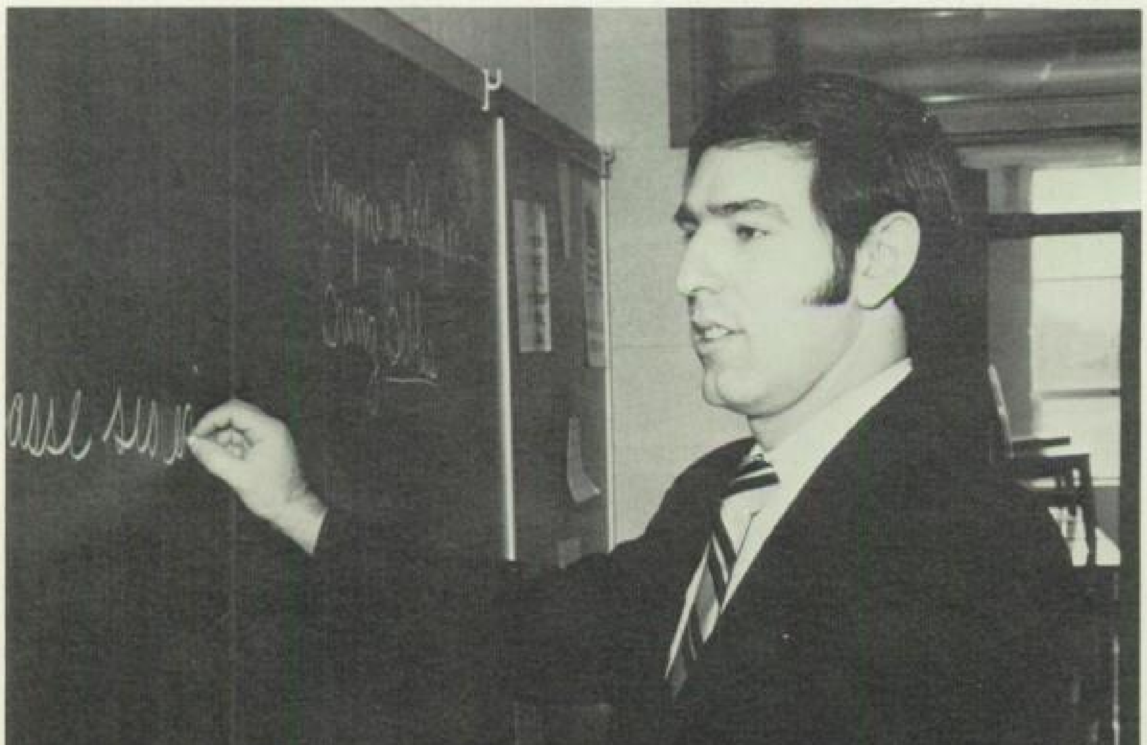
Don't tell me! We have another Rembrandt!: Mrs. Janet Singley.



If you think for one minute that we don't know what we're doing, you're right: Joseph Kulak, Elizabeth Moore.

How do you get this Bunsen Burner started?: Valerie Bunca, Pat Nolan.

Immaculata's sophomores embarked upon this academic year older and wiser. No longer were they bemused and puzzled freshmen. Each subject became an opportunity for the class of '73 to prove themselves. The religion course gave them a keener insight into the mysteries of the Church. Geometry class was quite a challenge to those who claimed they "couldn't draw a straight line with a ruler!" Language students — French, Spanish, and Latin — entered their second year, building upon what had been learned in the first. Spores and mitochondria, enzymes and gametes — all these and much more made their way into the Biology program of the progressing sophomores. In English, too, the avenues of learning were further widened as they studied the works of great American authors. The indispensable basis for academic excellence is a competent, modern-minded faculty. In this respect, the sophomores of Immaculata — as well as the rest of the student body — are extremely fortunate.

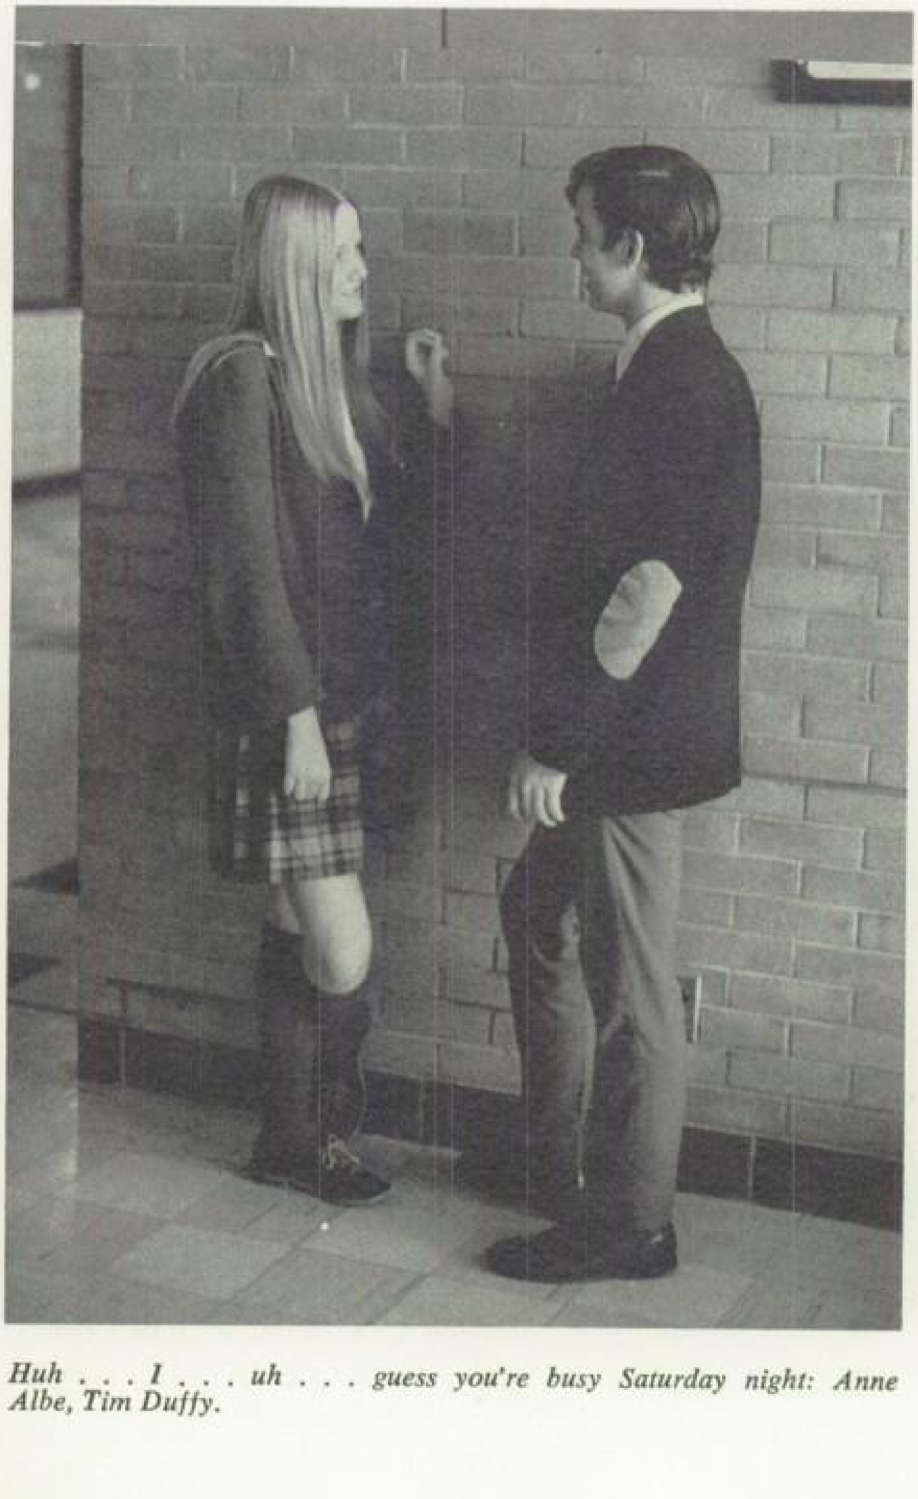


Ah! what is the Monsieur up to today?: Mr. Ortelio Fernandez.

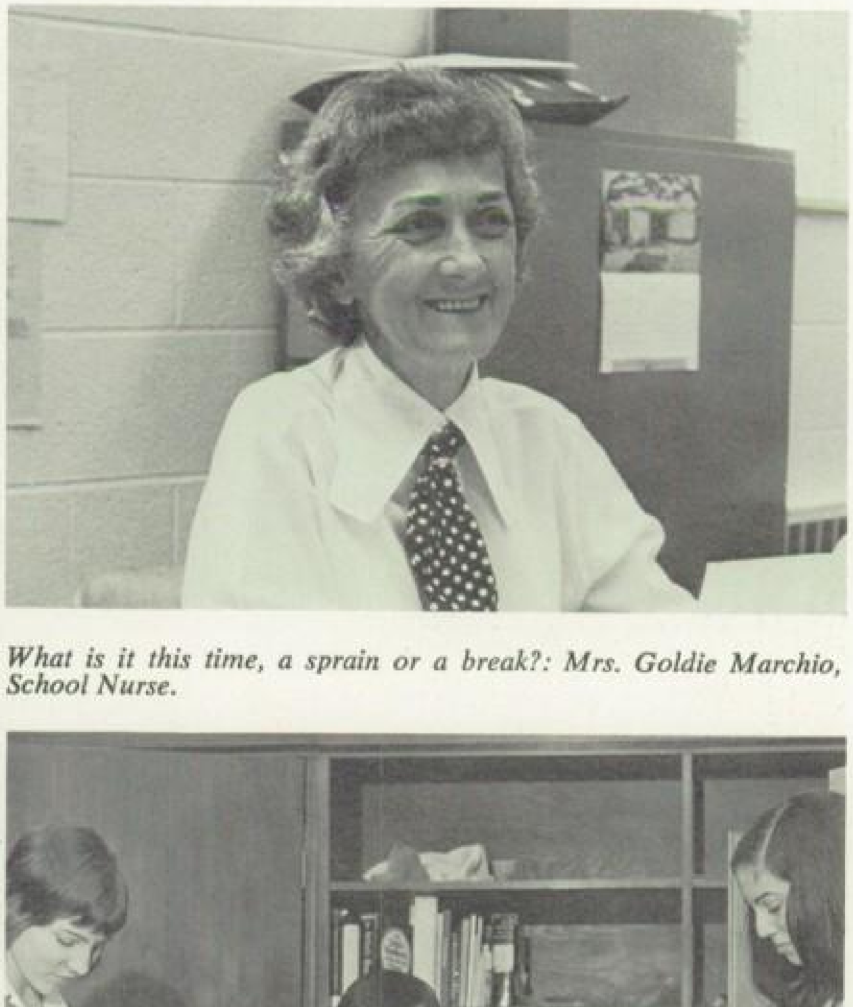
Local color is characteristic of which American authors?: Sister Maureen Thomas.

En español! por favor!: Sister Therese Inez.

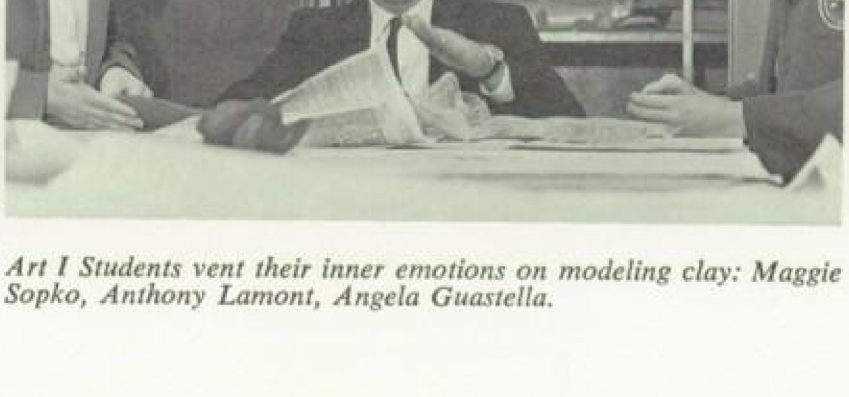
The Pythagorean theorem isn't that bad: Mr. Richard Spangler, Tommy Randall.



Huh . . . I . . . uh . . . guess you're busy Saturday night: Anne Albe, Tim Duffy.



What is it this time, a sprain or a break?: Mrs. Goldie Marchio, School Nurse.



Art I Students vent their inner emotions on modeling clay: Maggie Sopko, Anthony Lamont, Angela Guastella.

JUNIORS

My modular scheduling has been a success!: Sister Maria Jamesita.

Vocabulary

French idioms provide students with amusement: Jeanne Navin, Henry Phillips, Lynn Rohrbacker.

Who are the Juniors? They're upperclassmen. They're Spartans. They're individuals. They are people with a definite purpose. They have become accustomed to the hum-drum of daily routine, but more important, they have outgrown the greenery of the Freshmen and the pestiness of the Sophomores.

Juniors this year are having many new experiences at Immaculata. With all the thrills and memories of their younger years behind them, they are moving on to a new awareness of themselves. They are introduced to the Romantic Period of Keats, Byron, and Shelley who all preach, "Be thyself." Interesting subjects are introduced to the Juniors such as Home Economics, Typing, Chemistry, Algebra II and Trigonometry. Academically, they're facing new challenges — they are exposed to the aura of college. They perform on College Boards and PSAT's. Some also have the opportunity to belong to the National Honor Society.

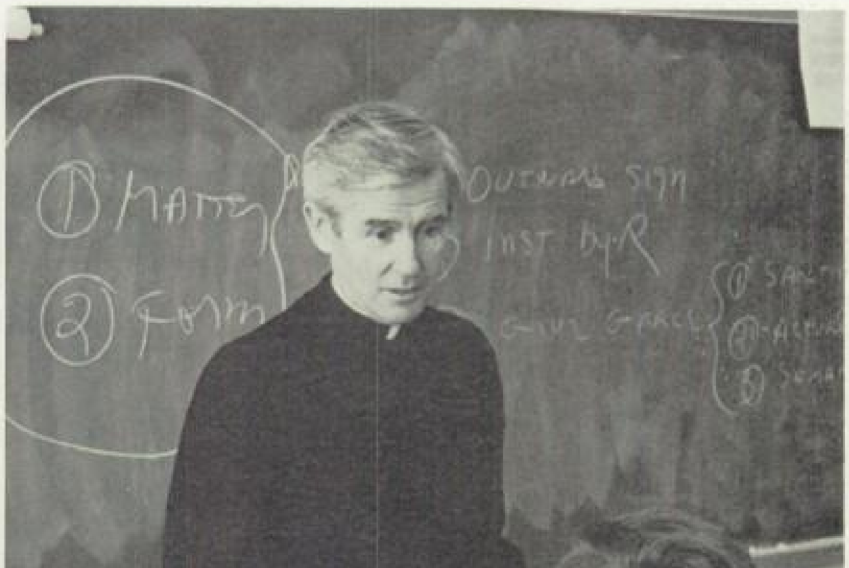
Red and white are junior spirit colors. Red is a symbol of their growing love for their school. White is the trademark of purity—purity of spirit and its fullfillment.

We hope the Juniors will be happy because of who they are and what they are, for it is only when men are true to themselves that they find real peace.

Patiently awaiting students' responses concerning the climax in Macbeth: Sister M. Perpetua.

U.S. History I teacher pauses a moment for the yearbook's wandering photographer: Mr. William Reinke.

The fearless leader of the future homemakers of America: Mrs. Ann Torpey.



I don't mean what I say: Father Richard Ewing.

God bless a new NHS member

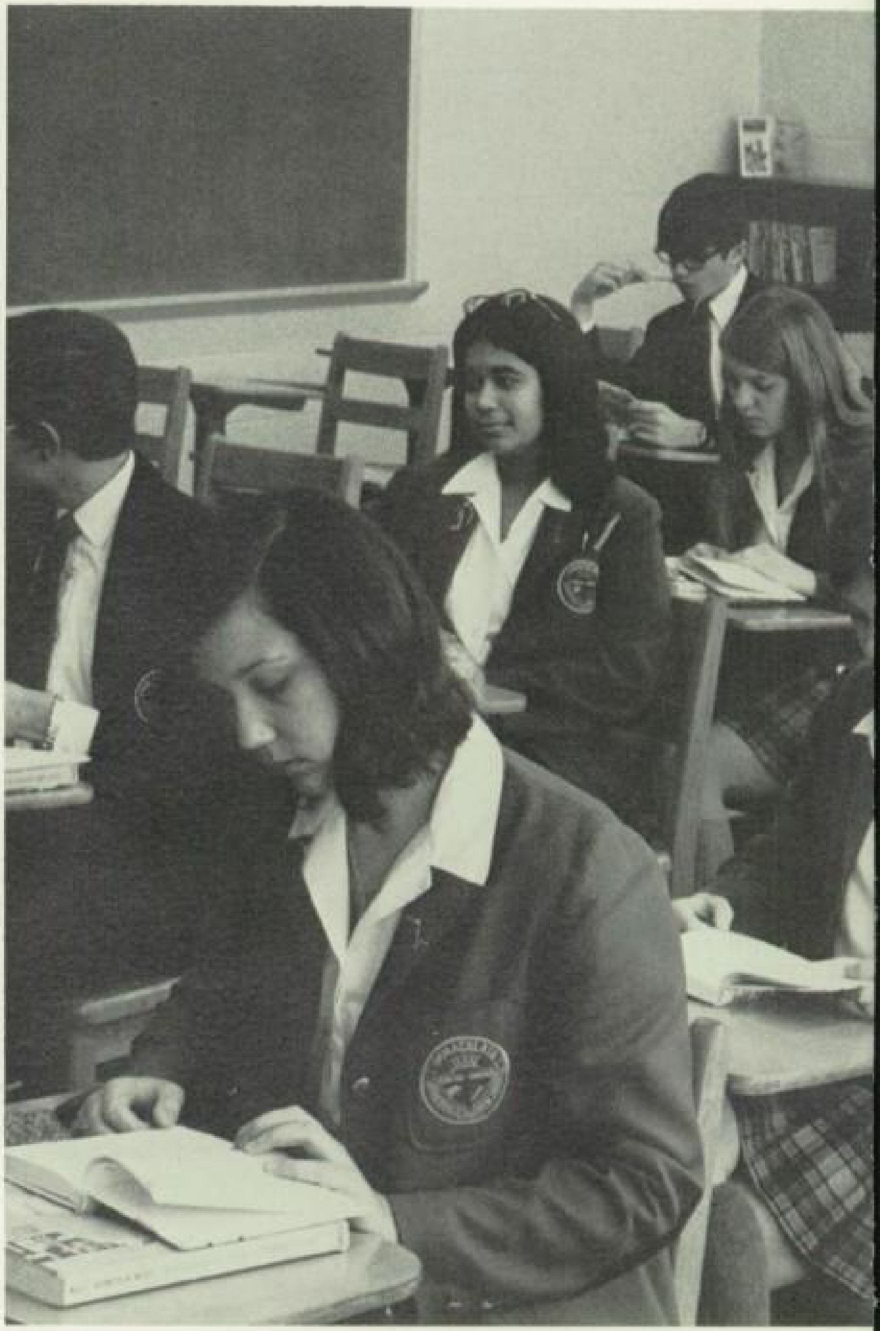
Sister Ellen F.

That was the best answer I've heard all year: Sister Ellen Francis.

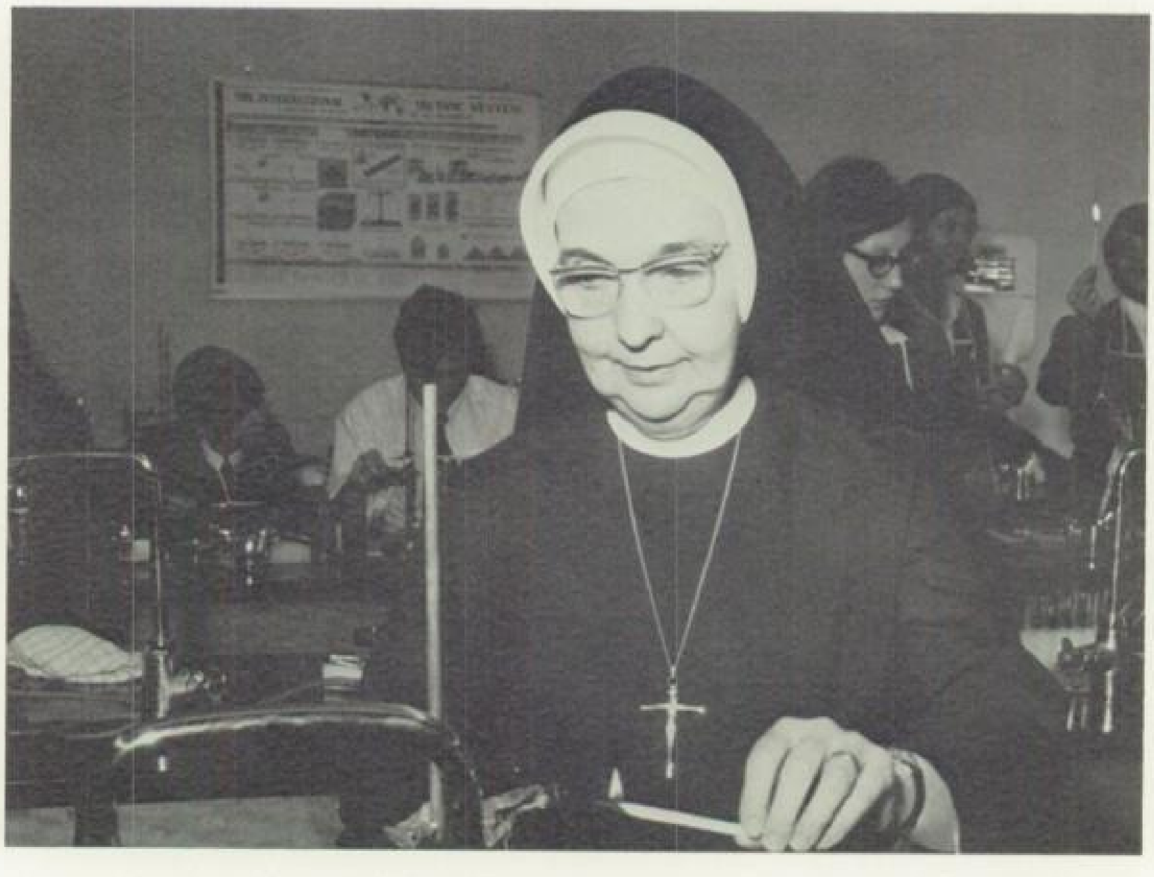


La Casa es blanca; no, es negra: Spanish III Students.

Two music students enjoy reading a "Who's Who" at the opera: Marshall Garrison, Carla Sue Perantoni.

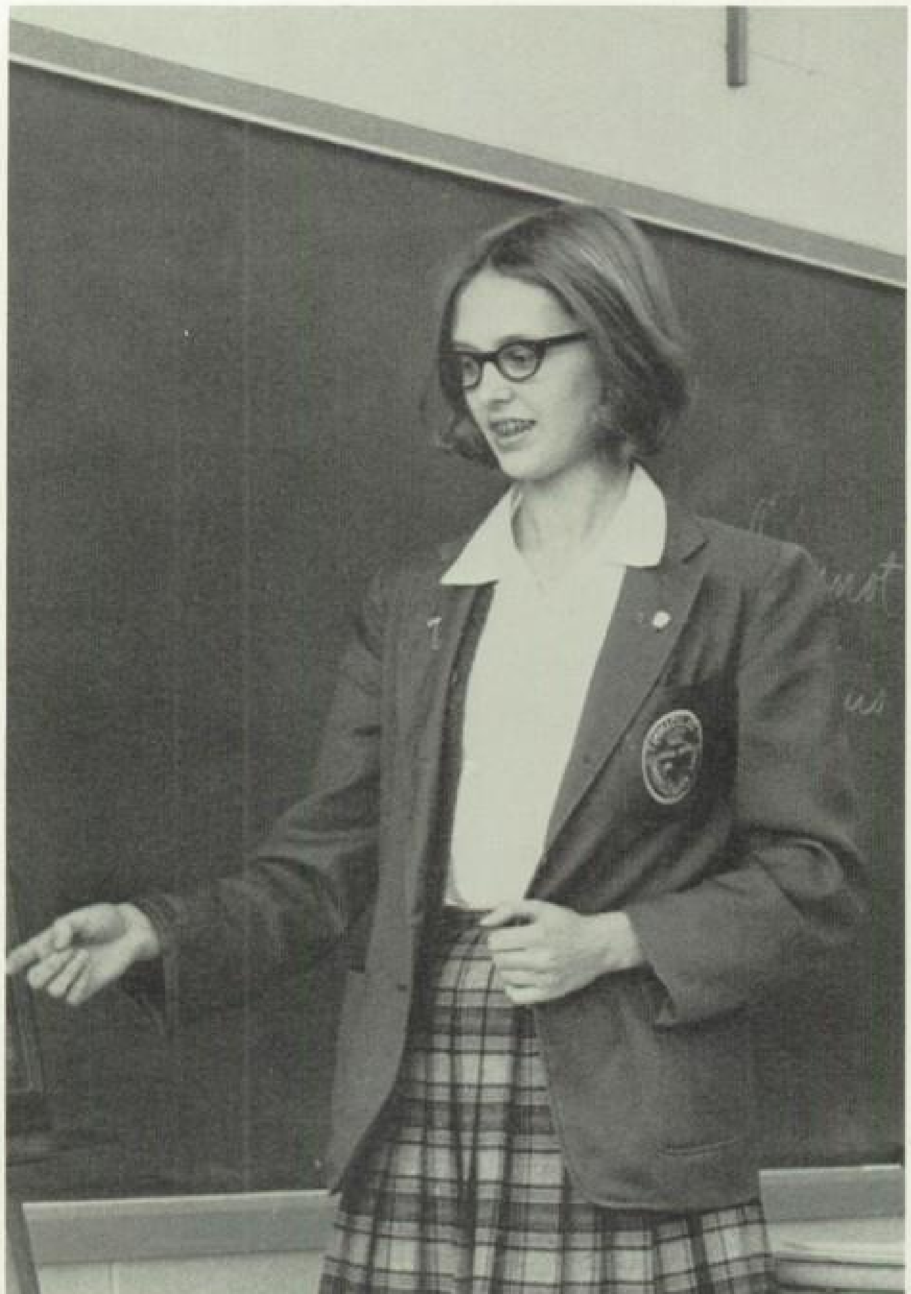
Drivers' Ed teacher weighs the pros and cons of driving with his students: Mr. Robert Sutton.

Uh, I think I'm afraid of heights! Peggy Cashin, Miss Lourdine Davies.



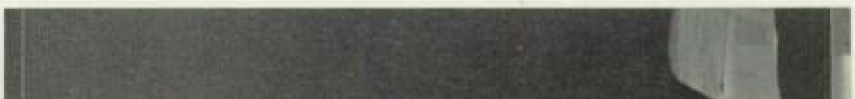
Every good chemist knows how to make oxygen!: Sister M. Avila.

SENIORS



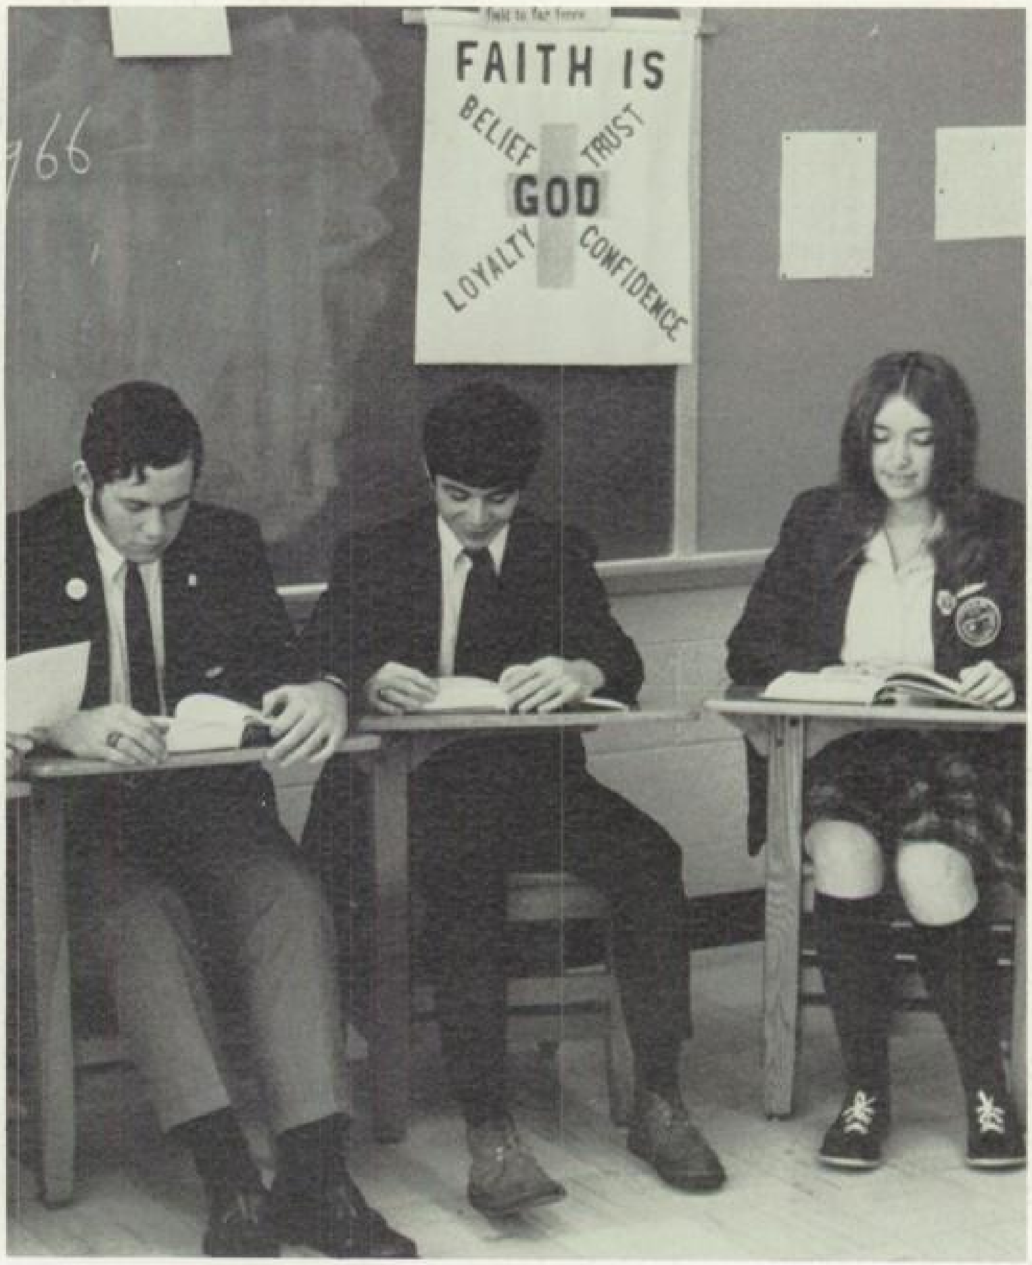
Et c'est une peinture par Renoir: Mary Lou Zoltek.

I think you may be able to get into that school: Miss Patricia Nelson, Nina Muglia.



With such a happy teacher even Math can be enjoyable: Sister Miriam Clare.

What's your reaction?: Sister Shaun Maureen.



Virgil students look to their books for guidance: William Kearney, Kevin Martin, Catherine Barr.

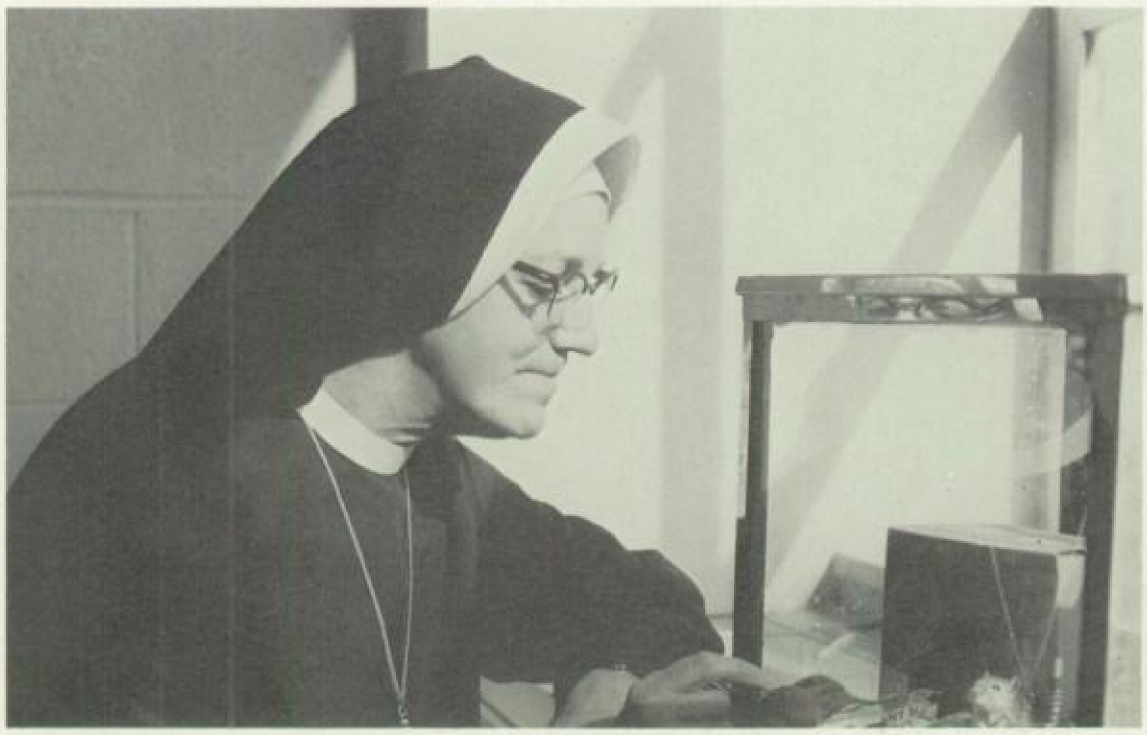
Ba-zi-BAA . . .: Joe Reynolds, Bob Leichte, Rich Dooley, Mr. John Di Giovanni.

Find the derivative to WHAT?: Kevin Martin, Joe Murphy, Cynthia Elkow.

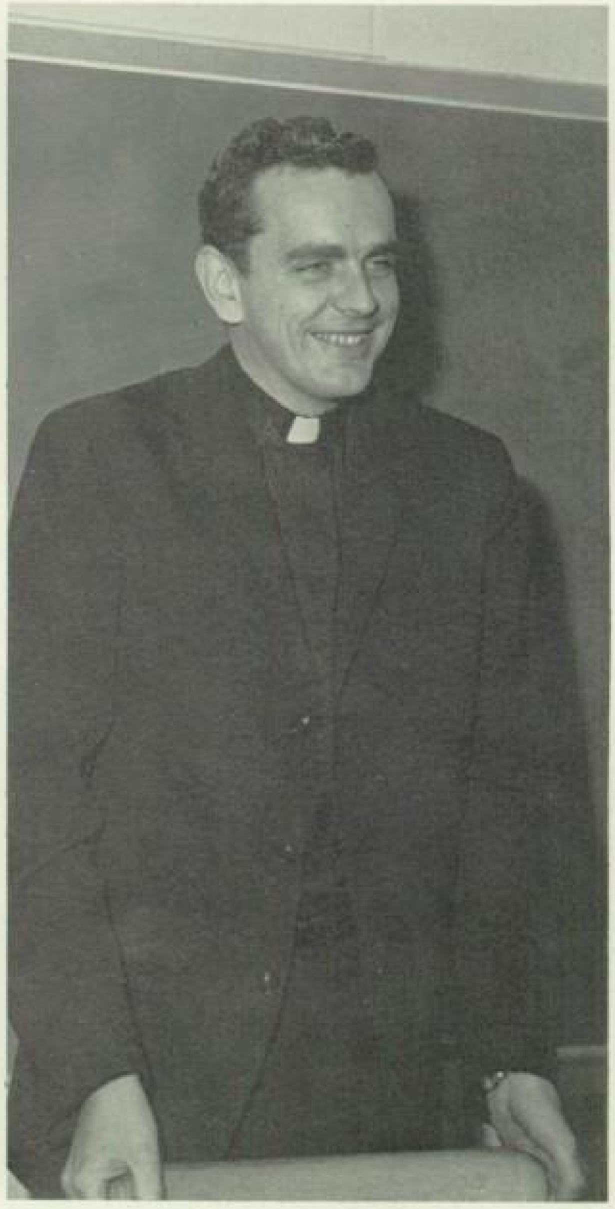
Senior year brings students closer to the end of their academic lives. They now stand at the crossroads of life. Which way to go? This question is on the minds of all seniors. The teachers of the class of '71 sought to help seniors find the answers to their questions.

For many, senior year was the last year of formal education before going out into the world. The faculty made sure that they were well equipped to handle their new responsibilities. For those who were pressing on into the world of higher education, the faculty did its best to instill diligence in their studies and a facility which would guide them through their college years.

As they step away from the crossroads, the class of 1971 will always hold memories of Immaculata in their hearts.

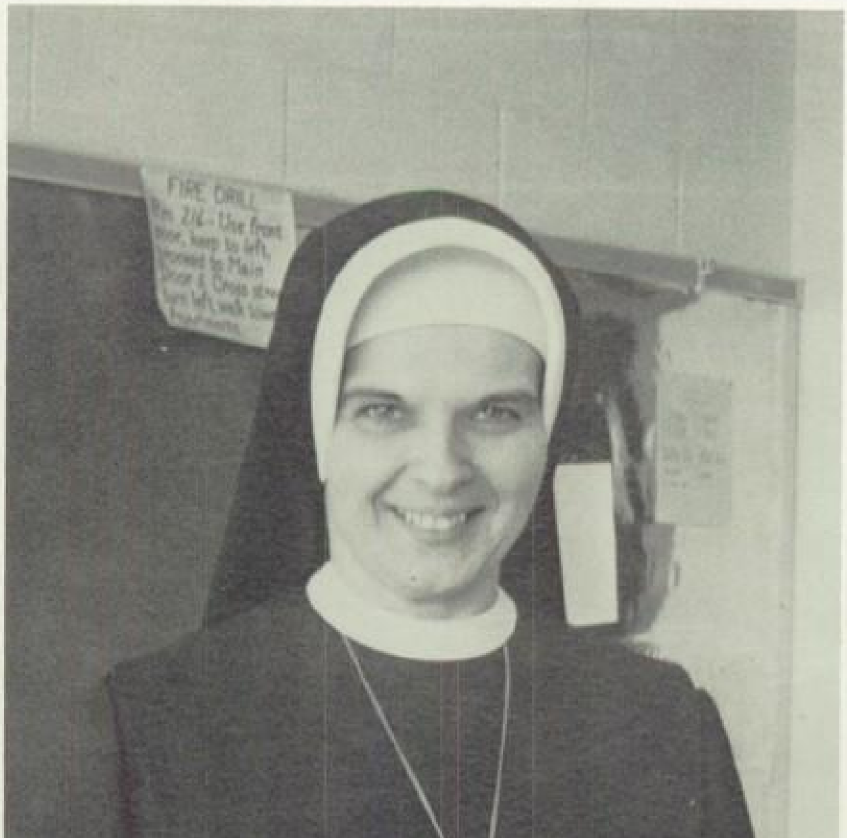


Well Mr. Gerbel, how are you feeling this morning?: Sister Cyrenia Marie.



Gee, kids, why must you ask that question?: Father Thomas Rafferty.

What pearls of wisdom has Jim Khoury discovered now?: Jim Khoury, Bob Breuning, Mark McIntyre, Robert Marsjanik, Marian Westman, Louise Malik, Tim Murphy.



A winning combination in any teacher — laughing eyes and a radiant smile: Sister Miriam.

Bill, I think you should put some paper in your typewriter first: Greg Foley, Mrs. Diane Thomas, Bill Dzugan.

Habla español? Si, si! por supuesto!: Karen Tasy, Kathy O'Neill.

Perhaps these are French designers posing as Immaculatans: Patti Towers, Kathy Piller.

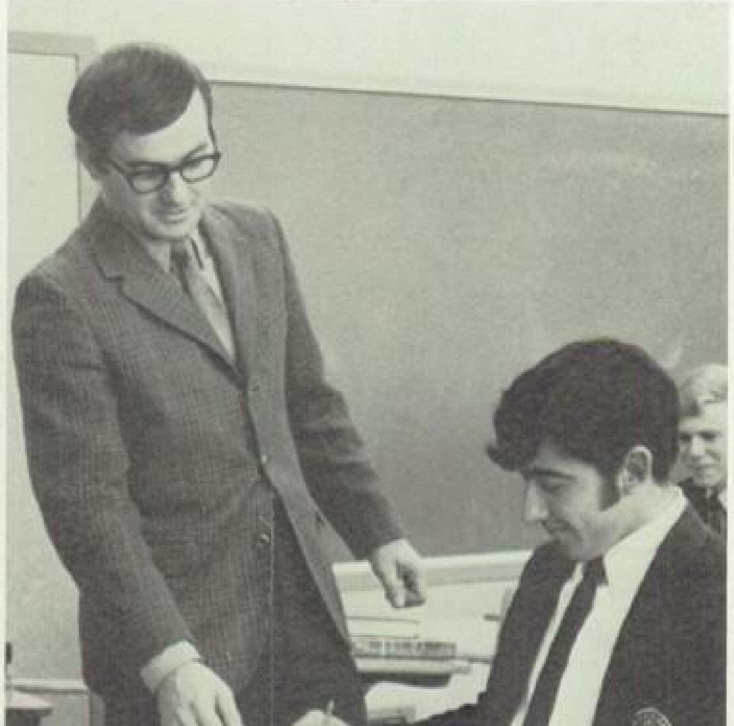
Does anyone know the frequencies to these calculations: Frank Zalewski, Henry Witmer, Raymond Zolandz, Mary Ivers, Mary Swarbrick.

Discussion of seniors during health class claims the undivided attention of teacher: Mr. Pierce Frauenheim.

Don't worry, this is just a little test; it won't count much — only about 85% of your grade: Mr. Joseph Poplowski.



Leo, 8 x 4 is 32, not 28: Mr. Victor Dudka, Leo Mastrobuono.

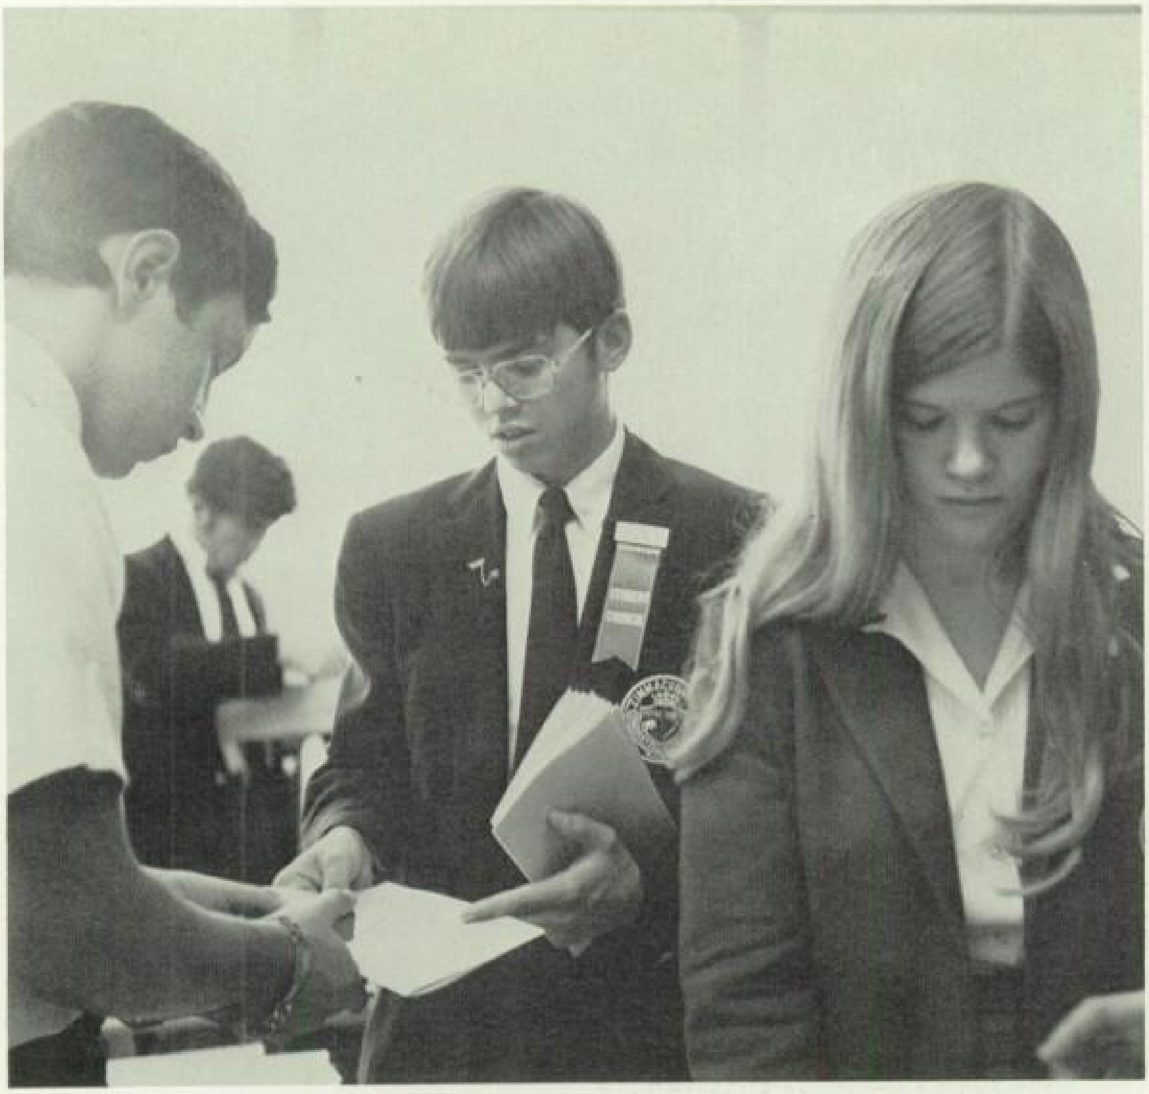
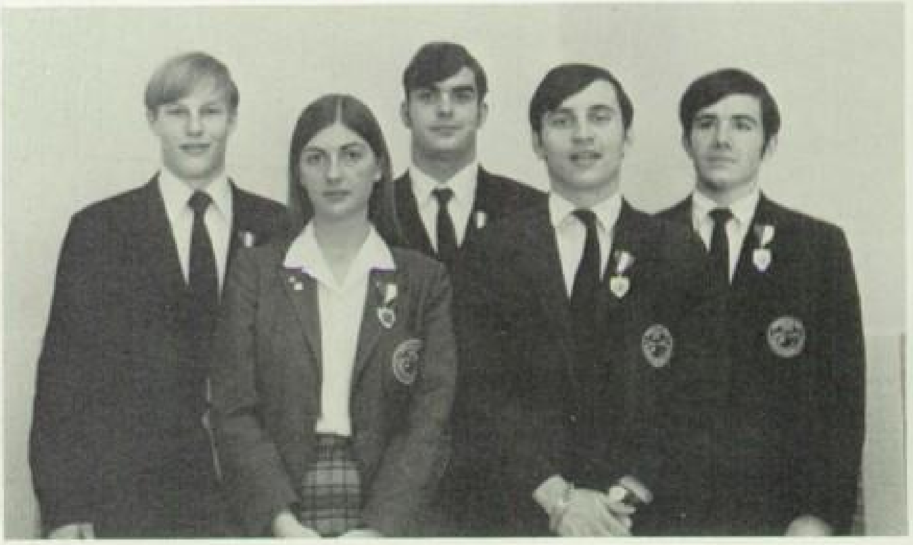
STUDENT COUNCIL

Elections for officers, councilors, and representatives are held in September of each school year. Beyond a doubt, the Student Council is the most respected organization of our school. This year's moderator, Sister Shaun Maureen, has helped council members to find the right approach towards better student-faculty communication. The duties of legislators included hosting Open House and College Night, assisting in homeroom tasks, and keeping order in the halls. The organization also sponsored Spirit Week, Pep Rallies, Film Festivals, a Talent Show, and Exchange Day. The Student Council have gained much through their experiences in leadership which will be invaluable to them in all walks of life in the future.



Councilors fold programs for Honor America Day Celebration: Timothy Murphy, Mike Harrison, Joseph Welch, Patricia Ferguson.

Artistic student councilors decorate the gym for a Friday night dance: Carol Kolb, Craig Manara, Dorianne Kabo, Mark Manning — Treasurer.



Senior student council members pose for the camera after the installation ceremony: Michael Liscovitz, Hope Loeffler—Secretary, William Burke, Timothy Murphy, Gerard Tarrant—President.

Discussion concerning plans for College Night: Michael Harrison—Vice-President, Susan Nolan, John Ancellotti, Jeanette Vuocolo, Miss Patricia Nelson.

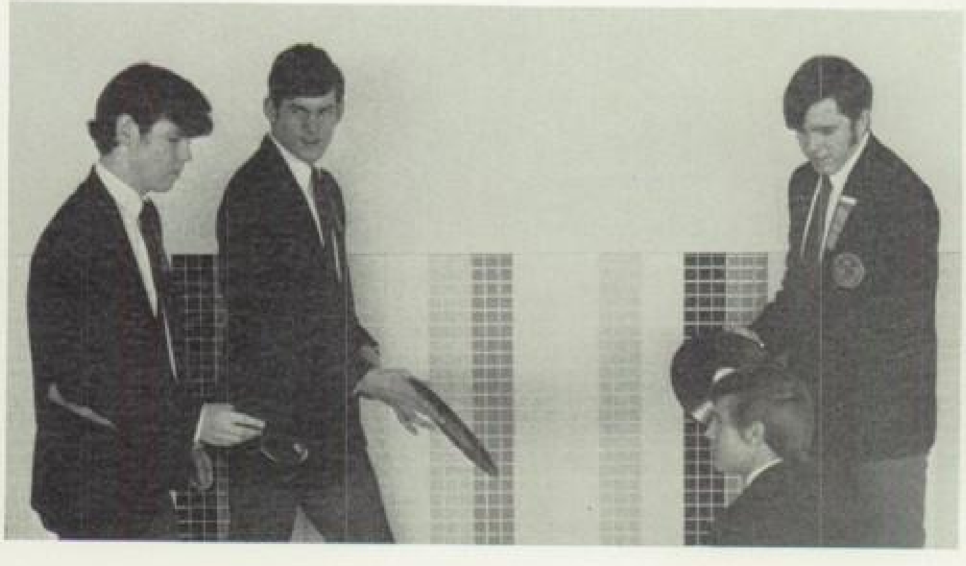
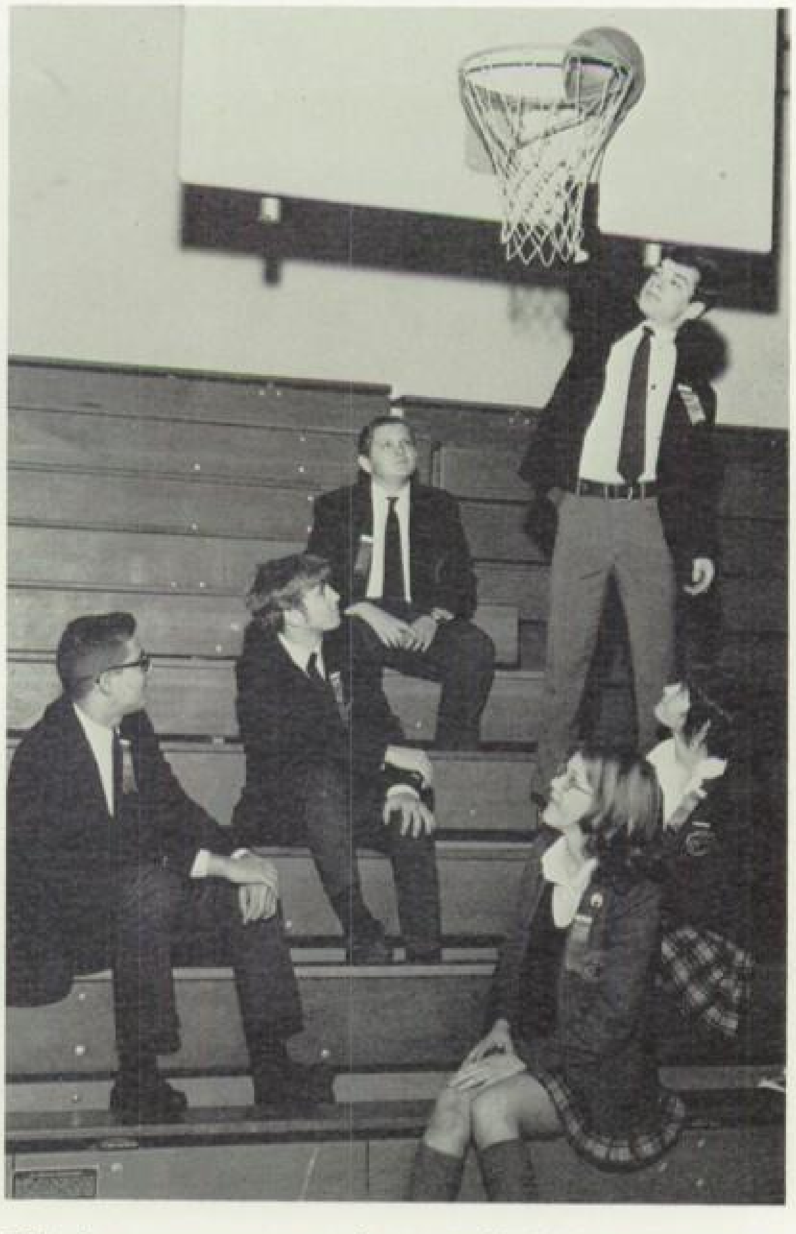
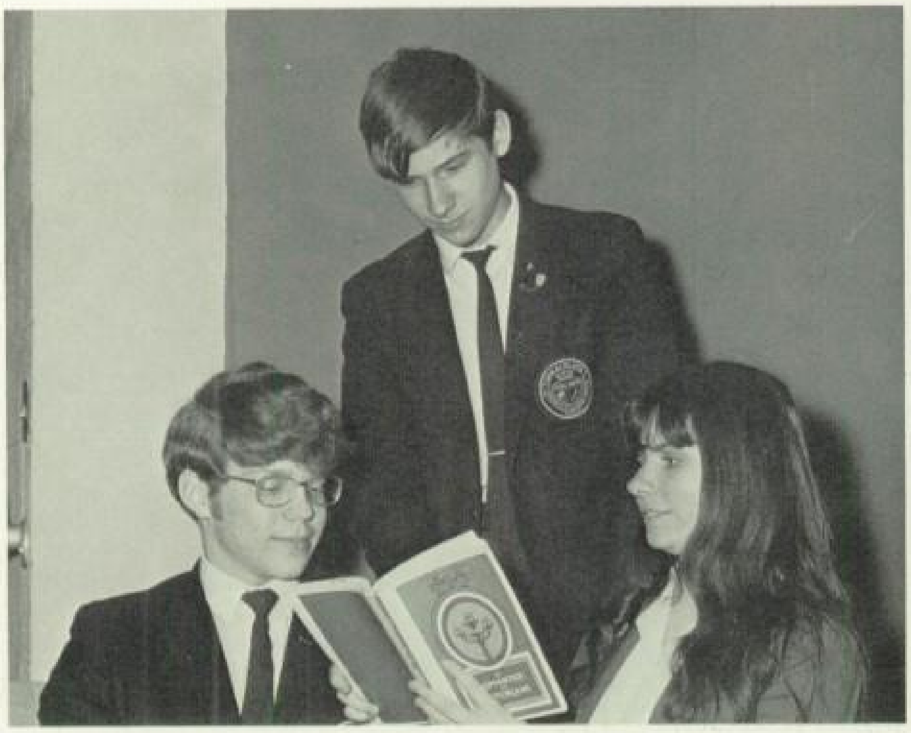
Class councilors and representatives return to class from their posts: James Gibbons, Timothy Marchio, Richard Murray, Edward Cooper, Thomas Crivello.



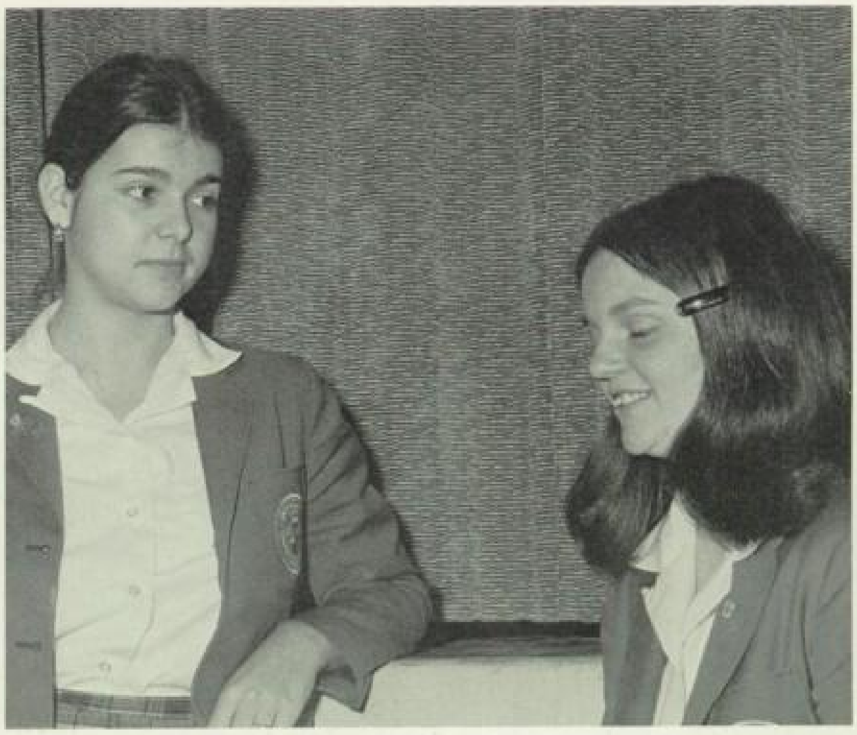
Selections made for entertainment during lunch periods: Timothy Duffy, Thomas Kelly, Edward Muldoon, Francis Maun.



This is an easy way to do it: Richard Sternadori, Peter Falencki, James Welch, John Pronko, Robyn Pelesky, Patricia Nolan.



There are your names in print, boys!: Michael Gemperle, Neal Duffy, Mari Bucklaw.



When I open my eyes, I'll be a member of the Junior National Honor Society: AnneMarie Beleznay, Emilie Memoli.

We finally made it!: Lou Vozza, Dorianne Kabo.

The NHS clean-up crew: Robert Dacuk, Thomas Corona, Richard Dooley.

JUNIOR NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

On January 28, 1971, those members of the Junior and Senior classes who had maintained a high scholastic average were inducted into the National Honor Society. These deserving students displayed exceptional mental prowess during their years here at Immaculata. On behalf of the faculty and students we wish to extend our sincere congratulations to them. As they approach the crossroads of their lives, we earnestly wish them much success in achieving their goals.

New National Honor Society members display their pins proudly: Dorianne Kabo, Katherine Dahms, Louis Vozza, Robert Dacuk, Annamarie Beleznay, Richard Dooley, Melanie Bieros, Neal Duffy, Mari Bucklaw.

MU ALPHA THETA: Henry Witmer, Sister Miriam Clare, Dorianne Kabo, Bruce Saller, Joseph Murphy.

CHEMISTRY CLUB: Katherine Dahms, James O'Shea, Michelle Garay, Richard Dooley.

SCIENCE CLUBS

Compounds, equations, and microbes have become the new worlds of Immaculata's amateur scientists and mathematicians. Through the Science and Math Clubs, these students have endeavored to increase their understandings of the hidden mysteries of Biology, Chemistry, and Math and to relate their knowledge to others. Math contests, Biology field trips, and lectures on the atom were the pathways to this knowledge.

BIOLOGY CLUB: Larry Brookes, Bridget Shovlin, Kathleen O'Neill, Carol Kolb.

Rehearsal proves fun for flappers: Carla Perantoni, Jeanette Schug, Bob Moffett, Pat Curtis, Patty Dallessio.

IMMACULATA DAY

The third annual Immaculata Day Play was given to welcome the freshmen and new students on October 7 in the Little Theater. A Funny Thing Happened to Me on the Way to College was the title of the original script written by the students themselves and presented under the direction of Mrs. Mary Dahms, the Drama Club's new moderator. This humorous play was enjoyed by all and gave those entertained an insight into the benefits of an education at Immaculata.

Sister Cathy instructs students on the glories of education: Cathy Barr.

Guitars and vocal cords make beautiful music together: Bill Sullivan, Mel Marchio, Jerry Cahill, Lou Vozza.

Make-up artist touches up actor: Mary Stiff, Jerry Cahill.

Actors perform the scene of the future during the Immaculata Day Play: Mary McCann, Marshall Garrison, Lou Vozza.

Don't worry, Charles, you're not going to die yet: Ellen (Mary McCann), Linda Rosen (Carol Kolb), Carrie Blaine (Dot Abroscat), Charles Arrons (Joe Welch), Frances Egan (Marian Westman).

SENIOR PLAY

February 19, 1971 — Lights! Places! Curtain! Action! Up the Down Staircase, starring Kathy Riley and Lou Vozza and featuring Cathy Barr and Jim Bell, along with the remaining cast of twenty-five, had just opened to a capacity crowd. No one enjoyed the play more than the cast, which was directed by Mrs. Mary Dahms, unless it was the unsung heroes in the background — the stage and make-up crews. Laughter — tears — nostalgia — exhaustion — flu reigned supreme on closing night (three performances later) as all realized that this was the very last dramatic endeavor of the class of '71. A final but fantastic performance had been presented by the IHS Thespians of '71.

What makes you think you're so special?: Sylvia Barrett (Kathy Riley), Joe Ferone (Lou Vozza).

Homework? . . . Teach, you've got to be kidding!: Vivian Paine (Pat Lavelle), Harry Kagan (Bill Sullivan), Katherine Wolzow (Mary Lou Harrison), Alice Blake (Mary Lou Wechsler), Helen Arbuzzi (Jeanette Vuocolo).

Why did we ever choose this profession?: Charlotte Wolf (Maureen Slade), Samuel Bester (Gerry Cahill), Sadie Finch (Colleen Dougherty), Ella Friedenberg (Mary Swarbrick), J. J. McHabe (Bob Nielsen).

Beware of Paul Barringer, the lover of the English Department: Barringer (Jim Bell), Beatrice Schachter (Cathy Barr).

Altogether now, let's sing our Alma Mater: Lennie Neumark (Jack Bennett), Rachel Gordon (Mary Ivers), Dr. Maxwell Clarke (Jim Wuelfing), Carole Blanca (Mary Stiff), Lou Martin (Mike Harrison).

When do we go home?: SEATED: Francine Gardner (Judy Fidellow), Jill Norris (Melanie Marchio). STANDING: Jose Rodriguez (John Rogalski), Elizabeth Ellis (Laureen Bowman), Rusty O'-Brien (Patrick Heffernan).

EXPLORERS CLUB: Frank Zalewski, Joseph Lawson, Joseph Welch, Mary Ivers, Marion Meene.

SOCIAL CLUBS

The social clubs of Immaculata provide a way for Immaculatans to show their school spirit. There are many organizations in which the students may participate. They consist of Young Christians Association, Chapel Aides, Mission Representatives, Explorers' Club, and Library Aides. Each club represents a vital aspect of the students' awareness of others' needs and their need for others. Efforts made in these activities will prove rewarding, since they develop in students the commitment and involvement requisite for beneficial participation in community projects in the future.

Staff members fold copies of latest issue: Gerry Manning, Mary Lou Wechsler, Michael Gross, Judy Fidellow, Tony Frangione, Mary Swarbrick.

Editor and company check for mistakes in the first issue: Mary Ivers, Al Cama, Jim Wuelfing, Carol Kolb, Lisa Christensen.

The IMMACULATAN, our school newspaper, is published six times annually; its chief function is to keep faculty and students alerted to current happenings in the world of the Spartans. IMMACULATAN reporters cover scholastic, social, and sports events, while world and community issues often provide discussion material for the editorial page. The high quality of the paper is due primarily to the dedication of advisor, Sister Maureen Thomas, and the hard work and long hours spent by the staff in Room 217 after school. These efforts are obviously appreciated as students avidly absorb each issue.

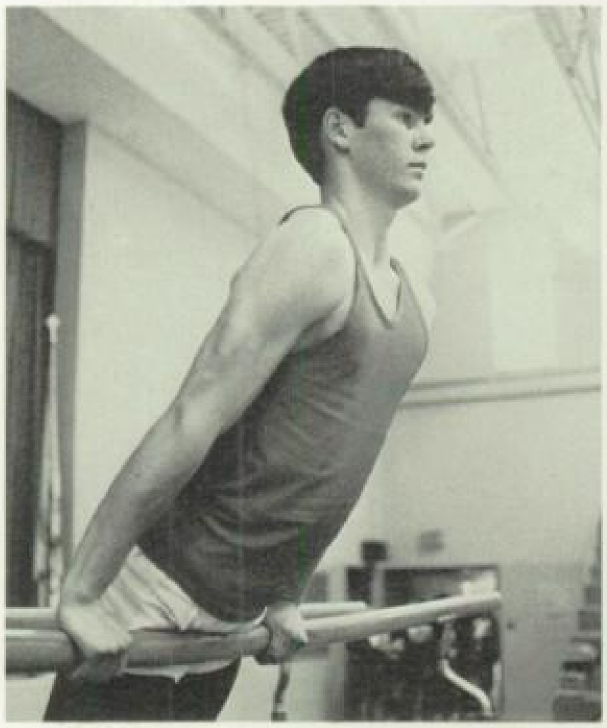
Students are photographed as they leave Immaculata for a Journalism Seminar sponsored by the Courier News: Mel Bieros, Pete Falencki, Carla Sue Perantoni, Bill Sullivan.

Members work late in order to meet a deadline: Katherine Dahms, Ray Zolandz, Kathy Riley, Andrea Aloia, Theresa McKeon.

Now, James . . .: Sister Maureen Thomas, James Wuelfing, editor.

Peek-a-boo! Newspaper isn't all work and no play: TOP to BOTTOM: Jives Bell, Bill Kearney, Lou Vozza, Mary McCann.

ATHLETICS CLUBS



PHYSICAL FITNESS CLUB: David Brucia.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS ASSOCIATION: Joanne Hahn, Annemarie Dowd, Kathleen Pachomski, Georgette Balog.

SPANISH CLUB REPRESENTATIVES: Karen Sartin, Tim Duffy, Marion Meene, Carol Kolb, George Herrera, Kathy O'Neill.

FRENCH CLUB REPRESENTATIVES: Rosemary Ryan, Robert Golski, Marylu Zoltek.

LATIN CLUB REPRESENTATIVES: Fred Loveland, Bill Kearney, Ed Olkowski, Kevin Martin, Carla Sue Perantoni.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

Today, English is becoming a more or less universal language in the business world. We Americans can travel almost anywhere in the world and be sure that there will be no lack of communication. So, why should we study a foreign language? Ask any French, Spanish, or Latin student and you will be convinced of the true value of these courses. The learning of a language is not just a matter of grammar and vocabulary; rather, the students delve into a study of the peoples of these countries through the use of tapes, records, films, posters, and numerous books. In studying these subjects, an understanding of the cultures of the world is afforded to students — a tremendously beneficial attainment in today's ever increasingly "small" world.

Okay — what happened to page 48?: Shelly Garay, Eileen Ivantic.

Maureen: We need a thesaurus; Lou: that's not all we need: Maureen Slade, Lou Vozza, Dot Abroscat.

MAGNIFICAT

With rulers clattering, pencils pecking, and imaginations brimming, the 1971 MAGNIFICAT staff faced the challenge of constructing "our yearbook." A new moderator, Sister Miriam I.H.M., brought along with her enthusiasm and new methods which contributed towards a more interesting and streamlined book. The shifting of layouts, the "pepping-up" of captions, and often tedious jobs of cropping and proof-reading were only the external signs of the staff's efforts and hopes. Working together towards a common goal, the staff members formed new values and friendships, essential to a meaningful yearbook.

The Odd Couple: Brian Zuccarelli, Frank Orecchio.

Write on!: Dorianne Kabo.

Staff members plan layouts from their thumb-nail sketches: Laureen Bowman, John Rogalski, Patty Lavelle, Alice Morris.

Moderator and editors pursue the usual post-school-day activities: Sister Miriam, Pat Curtis, Joe Welch, Maureen Slade, Marian Westman, Barbara Eganey.

AMERICAN CONSCIENCE (HISTORY) CLUB: William Clifford, Robyn Pelesky, Margaret Cashin, Mark Garay.

SKI CLUB: Keven Smith.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA CLUB: Mary Lou Wechsler, Judith Fidellow, Marion Meene, Patricia Ferguson.

FORENSIC AND DEBATE: Raymond Zolandz, Gerald Cahill, Katherine Dahms, Melanie Bieros, advisor—Sister Loretta Margaret.

HEALTH CAREERS: Eileen Todd, Peggy Loeffler, Susan Lunney, Mari Bowlby.

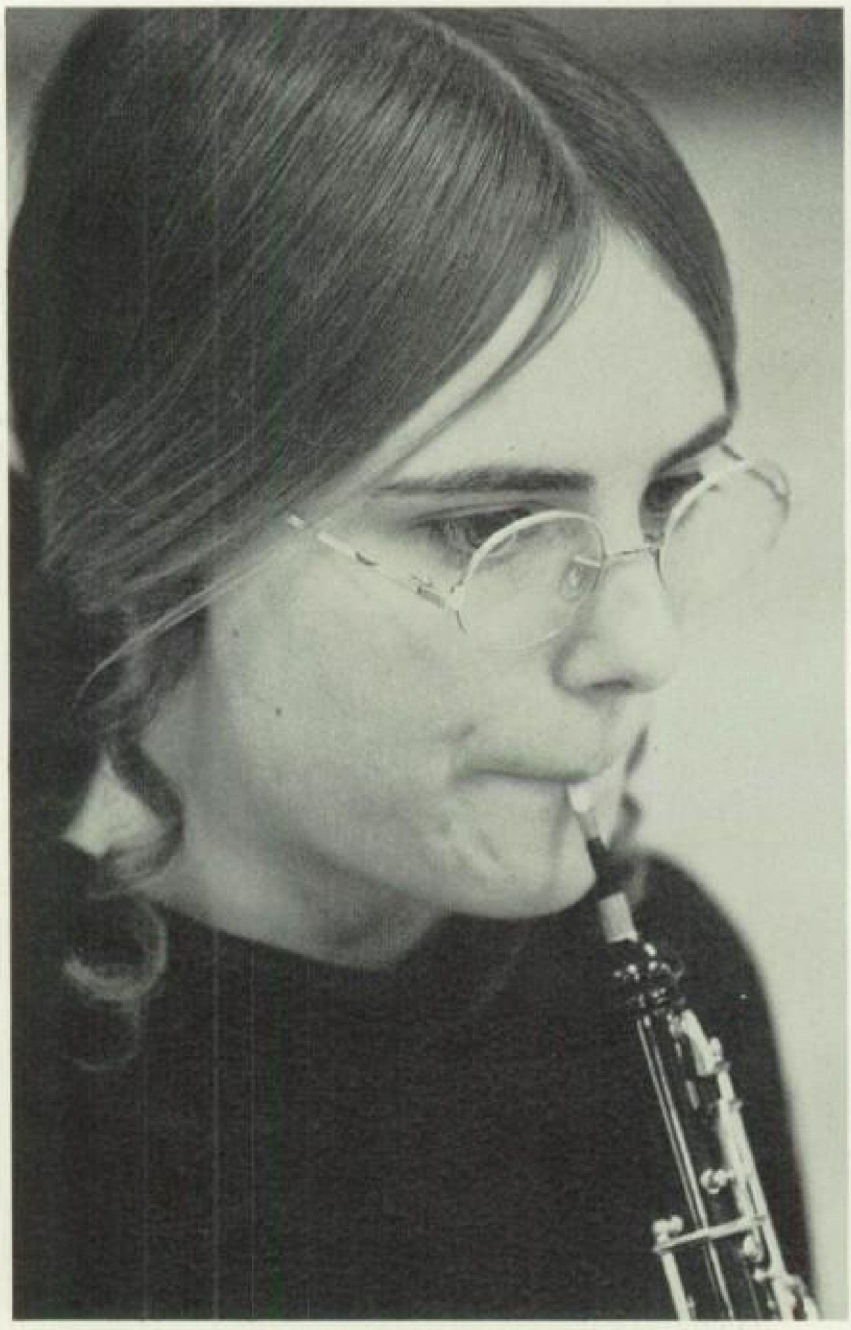
Concert members relax backstage between performances: Chris Trapani, Peggy McCaughey, Jeanette Schug, Jerry Cahill, Patty Dallessio.

BAND AND GLEE CLUB

The Queen of the Arts, music, is a part of the educational and cultural background here at Immaculata. Annually, the music department sponsors a Spring Musicale. Credits for this festive occasion belong to Sister Ann Bernadette, Mr. John DiGiovanni, and, of course, the members of the music department themselves, composed of Concert and Stage bands and the Glee Club. Highlighting this year's performance are the William Tell Overture by the concert band; the popular song of the Beatles Let It Be by the stage band; and the hymn dedicated to Our Lady, Immaculata Conceptio by the glee club. The band is also responsible for exciting spirit at pep rallies and providing music at assemblies. Continually they work above and beyond the call of duty. Musical knowledge and experience are gained as great service is given in the true Spartan spirit.



First oboe player concentrates on William Tell Overture: Peggy McCaughey.

Students in concert band anxiously await opening night: Jeanette Vuocolo, Dorianne Kabo, Michelle Garay, Kathy Kelly, Ilona Wass, Gerry Gula.

A Formal Appearance: Immaculata High School Glee Club.

One, two, three, four: Mr. John DiGiovanni.

Flutist is intent upon her instructor: Judy Fidellow.

God Bless America echoes senior vocalist: Mary Lou Wechsler.

Instructor directs various section leaders in the correct timing: Judy Fidellow, Henry Witmer, Tom Rhein, John DiGiovanni, Carolyn Black, Mary Harrison, Carol Kolb.

Clarinetist rehearses Honor Band: Jeanette Schug.

Nervousness prevails before Glee Club performance: Marylou Harrison, Mary Stiff, Mary Swarbrick, Gerry Gula.

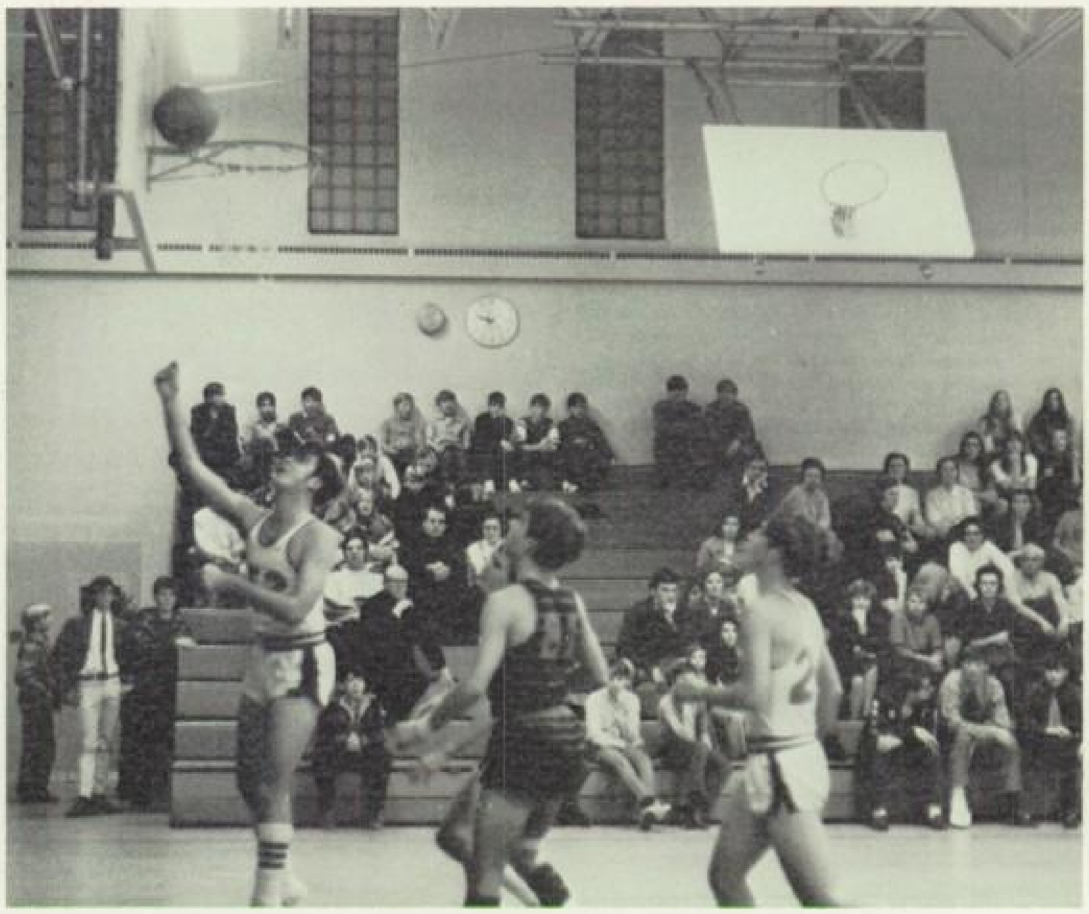
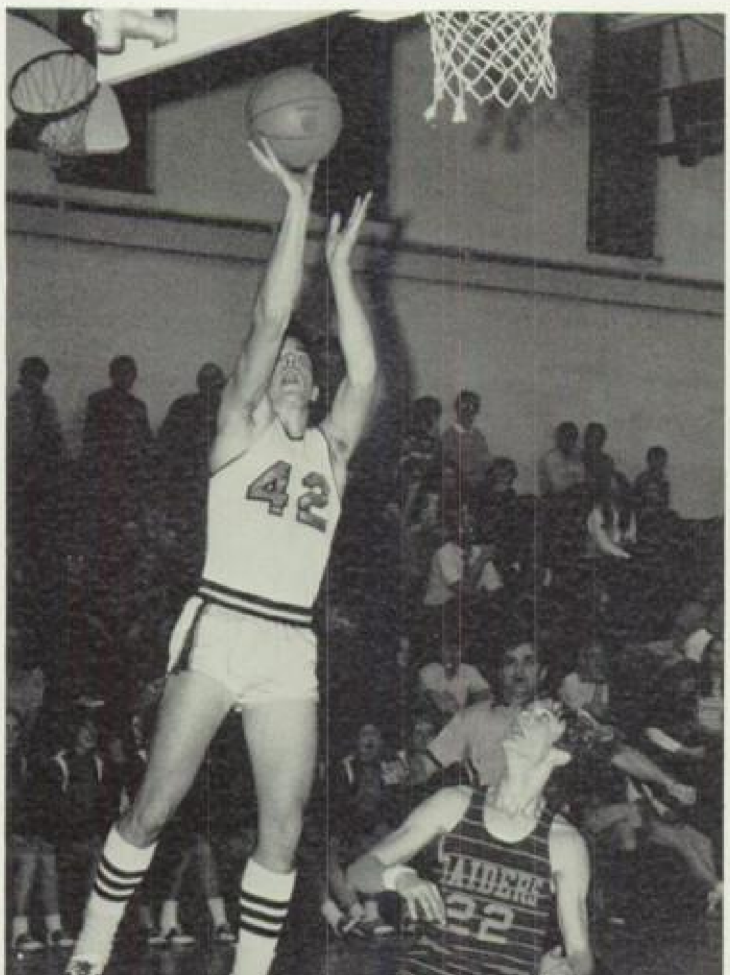
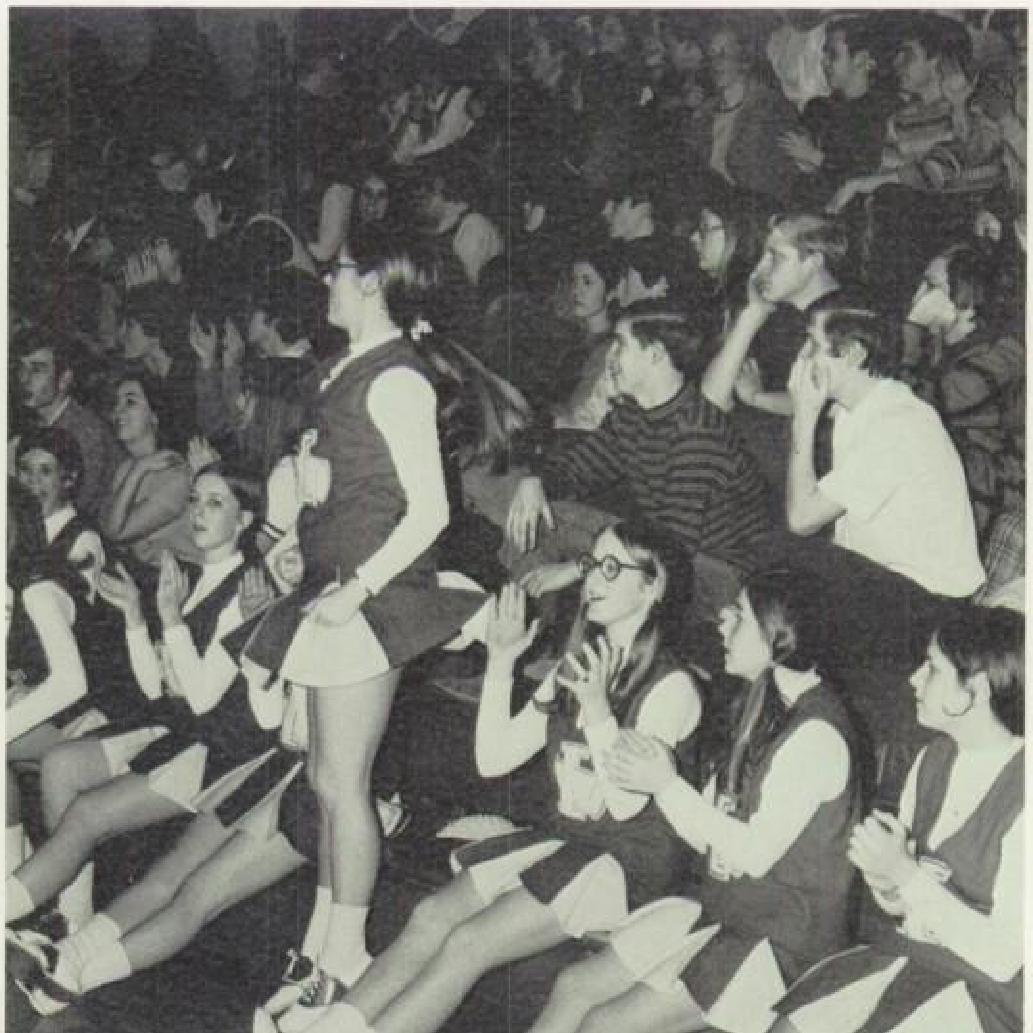
Man falls two inches short of the Raiders' tap: Bill Zanninelli.



I think this ball is trying to find the net: Bill Burke.

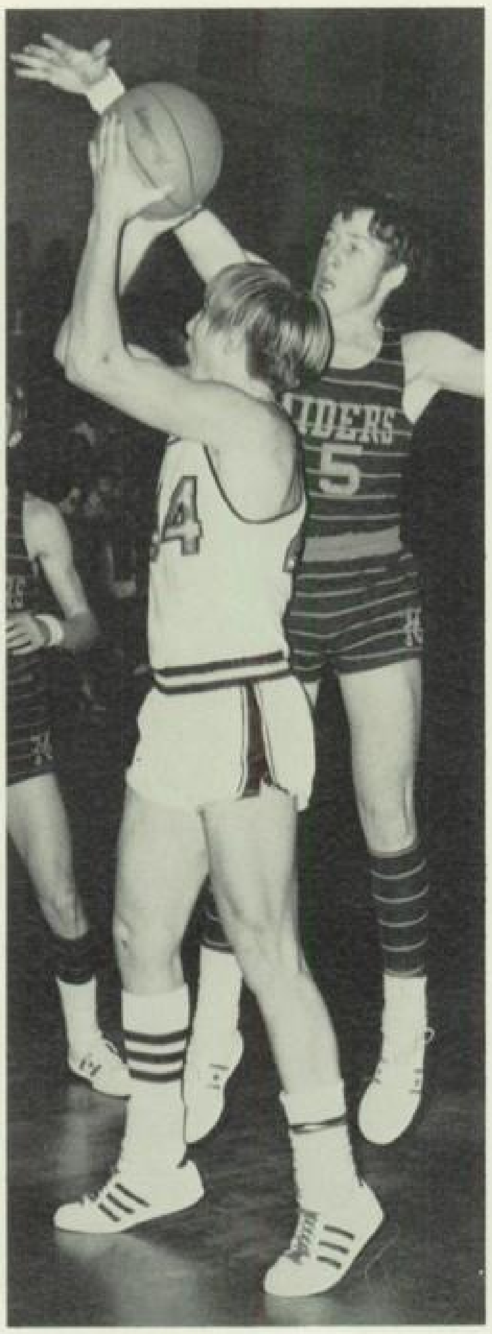


Another lay-up is sustained by the virile 42: Joe Murphy.

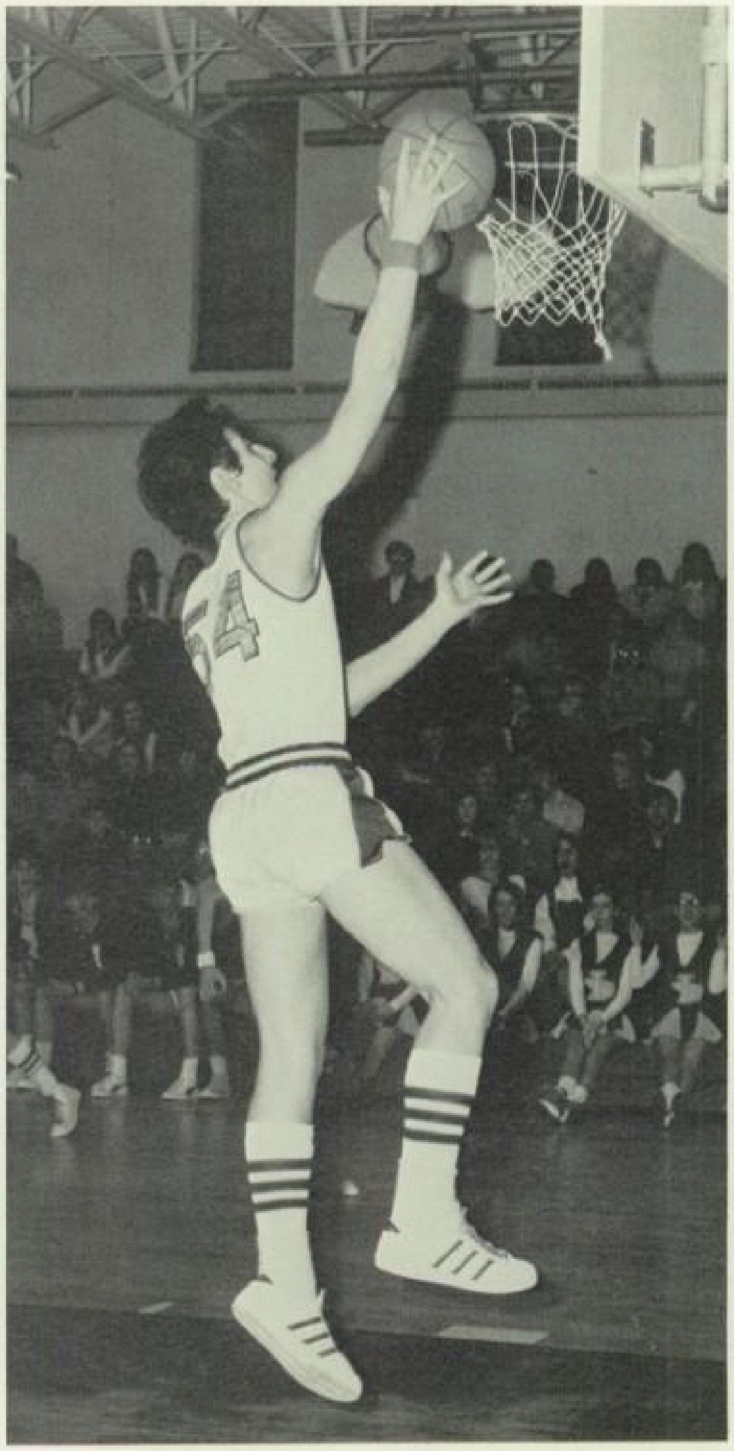


Happy faces and jumping cheerleaders are the essence of a successful game: Varsity Cheerleaders.

Mouth's open! Will he make it?: Dale Florio.



The Raiders' center blocks the shot for a possible ten-point boost: Dale Florio.



Bill makes another lay-up to boost the Spartans' score: Bill Zanninelli.

Peter is tense, but the ball is under control: Pete Manara.

The 1970-71 basketball season was a prime example of the Spartan spirit and drive. Regardless of the tough schedule the team had upon their shoulders, this attitude prevailed throughout the season. Head Coach Joseph Poplowski put the "urge to win" and "give your all" thinking into his men. Much of the credit has to be given to the outstanding playmaking of Pete Manara and Tim Murphy, the accurate shooting of Joe Murphy, Bill Zanninelli, and Dale Florio, but most of all to the moral support of the team for each other as a whole. The tireless work and constant drive of the team filled us with pride as they set a record-breaking series of victories.

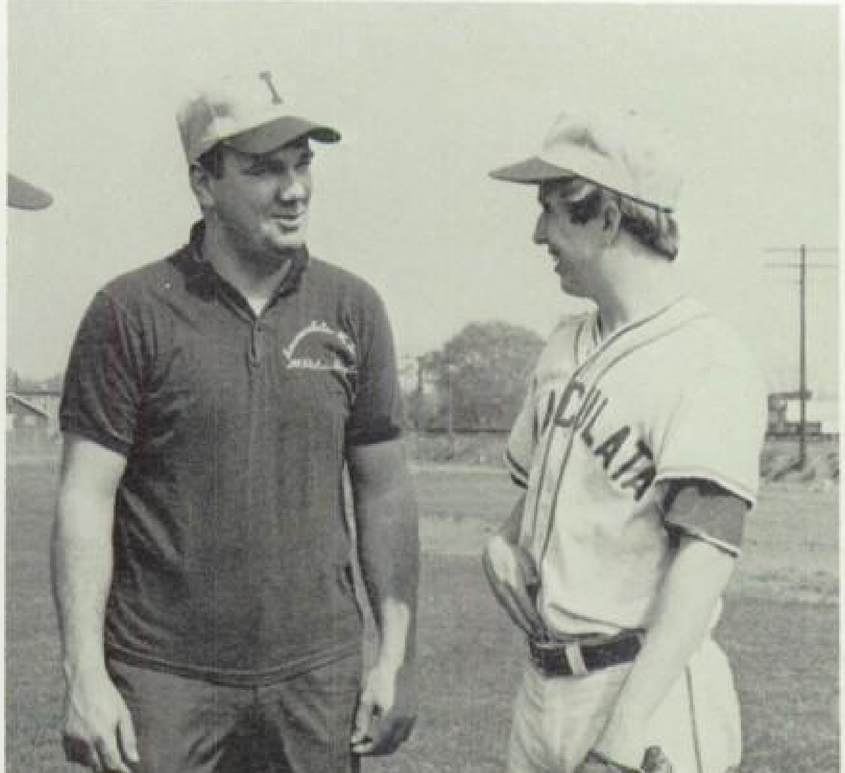
What kind of ball-thrower is that pitcher: Tim Murphy.

First baseman impatiently waits for attempted double play: Arnold Slaby.

Ball is suspended while batter charges to first base: Pat Ruppe.



Kevin, you should take this game more seriously!: Coach Richard Spangler, Kevin Heinold.

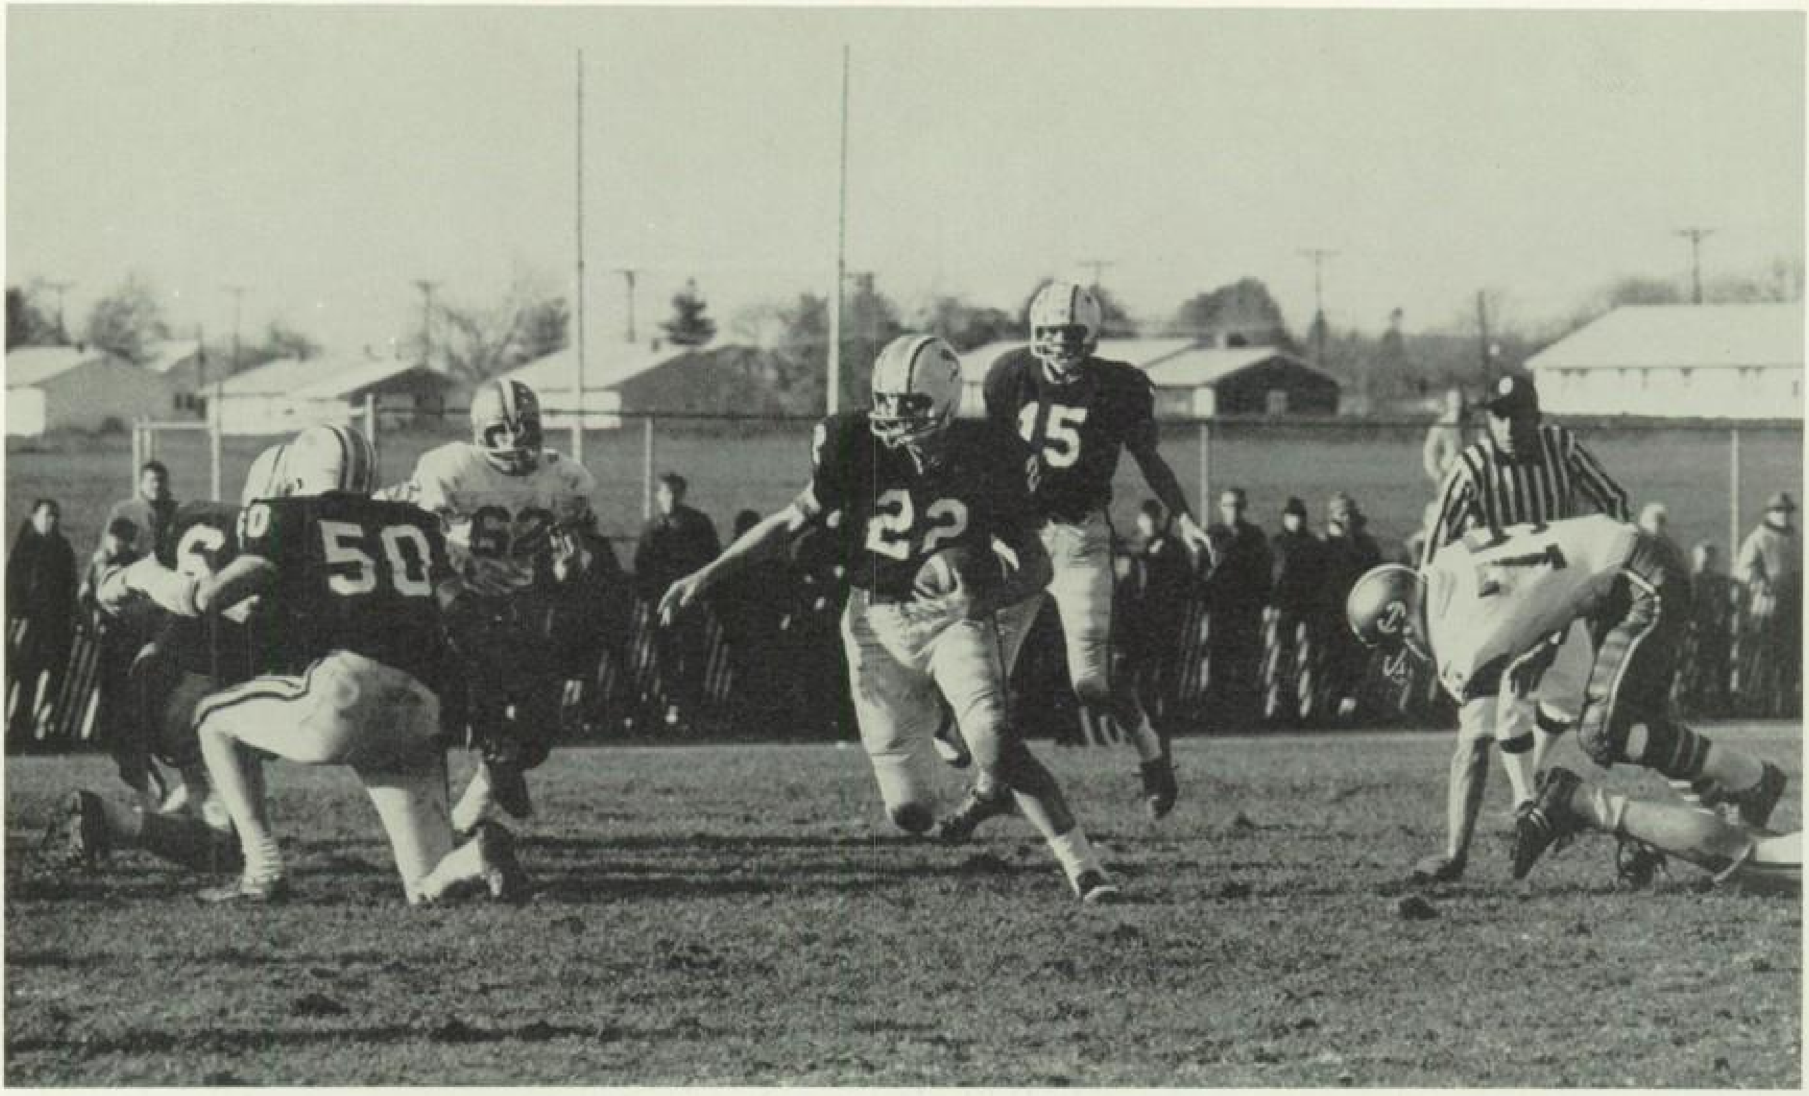
The Baseball season of Immaculata High School was a rewarding one for the boys and Coach Richard Spangler. Spirited by the Spartan drive, they managed to match or exceed the skill of their opponents. Congratulations, team!

Bring 'em home!: Coach Richard Spangler.

Get ready . . . : Dave Walters.

Get set . . . : Dave Walters.

Go . . . : Dave Walters.



Halfback carries the ball around the end on a sweep play: Al Cama, Ed Cooper, Mike Liscovitz, Kevin Murphy.

Dear Lord, let him make it: Anxious Junior Varsity Members.

T-E-A-M! yes team. That is the only four letter sequence suitable to describe the spirit and comradeship of the Immaculata football players during the 1970-71 season. Varsity football has come a long way since the first game with Dunellen under the direction of Coach Pierce Frauenheim. This year the Varsity has earned the respect of every team they have played because of their undaunted spirit of — "Try, try again!"

Coach contemplates the outcome of the Spartans' next play: Mr. Conti.

Immaculata captain meets Hillsborough co-captains for traditional coin toss: Bill Burke (87).

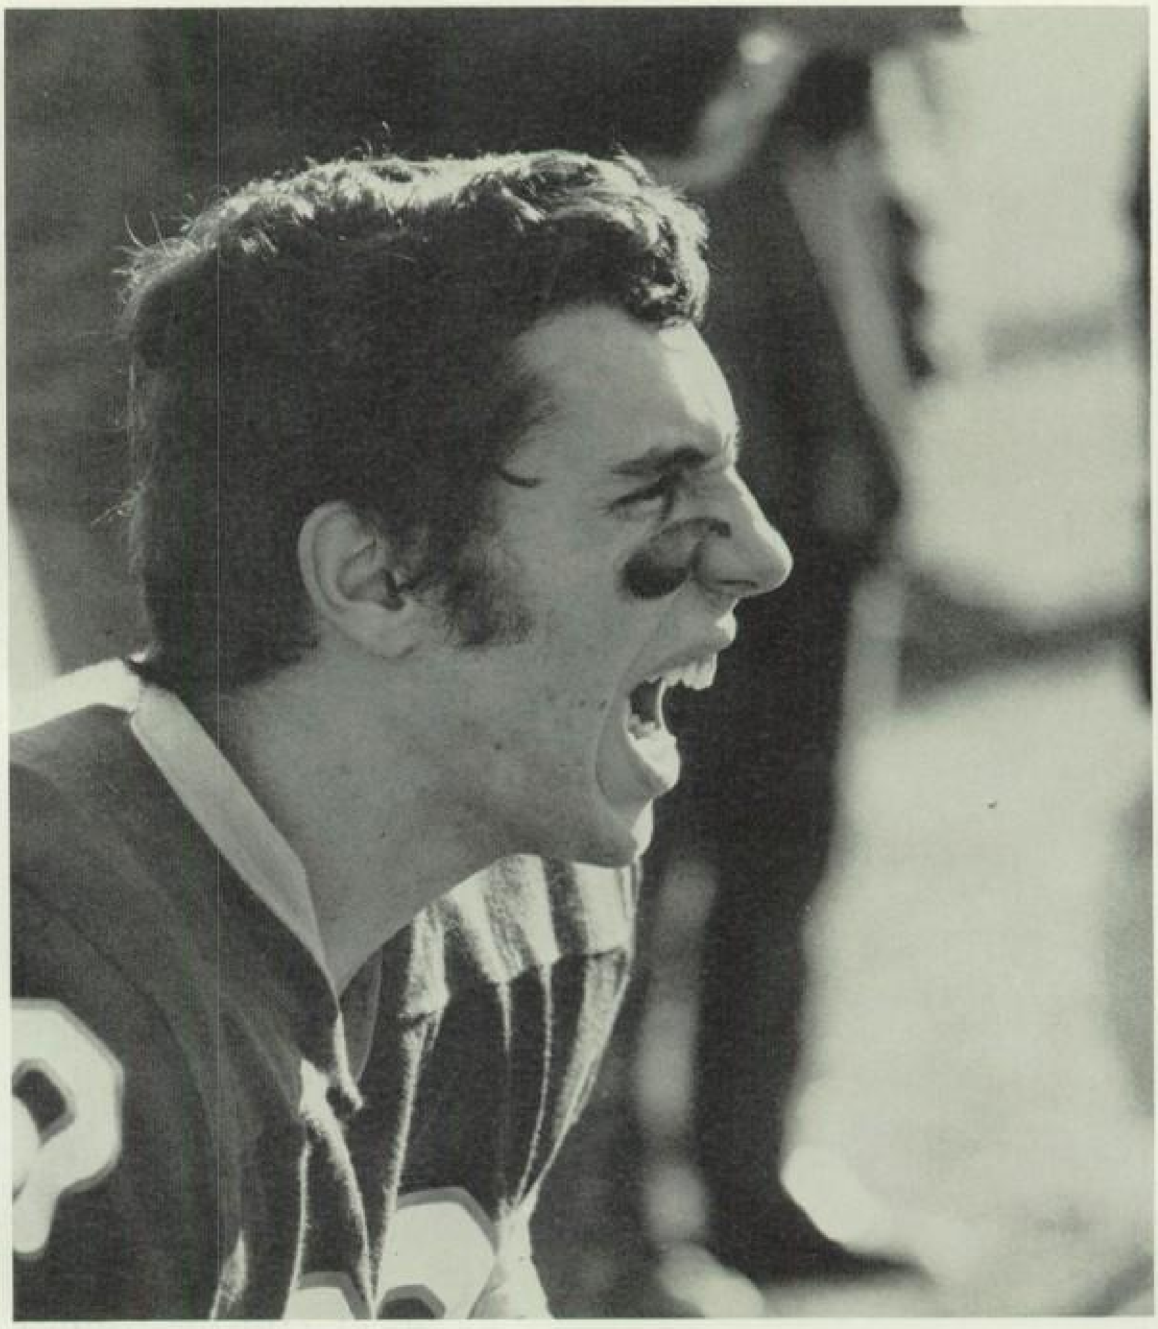
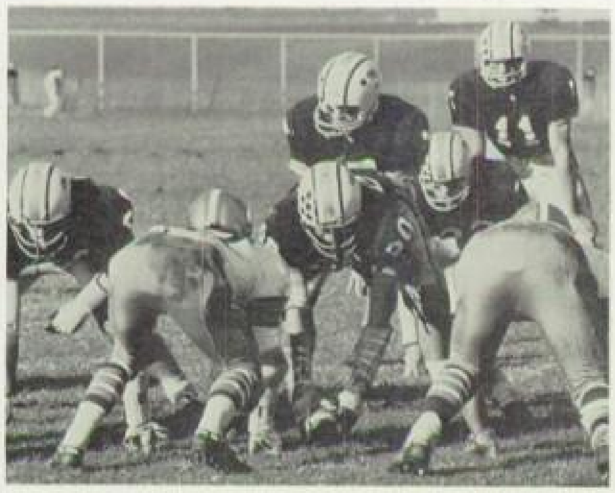
One - two - three - punt: Leo Mastrobuono.



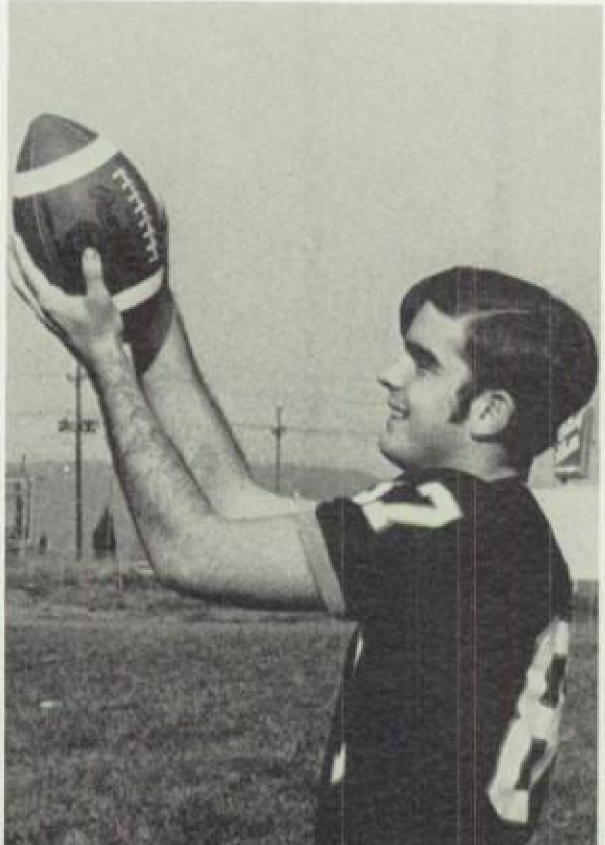
End shows true "Spartan spirit": John Ancellotti.

Halfback takes handoff and looks for an opening in Hillsborough line: Mike Liscovitz (22).

Ball carrier drives for good yardage against opponents: Craig Manara (33).



Quarterback calls signals for Immaculata eleven: Kevin Murphy.



If only it were so easy to hold in the actual game: Bill Burke, Captain.

Coach shouts encouragement to Spartan players: Head Coach Pierce Frauenheim.

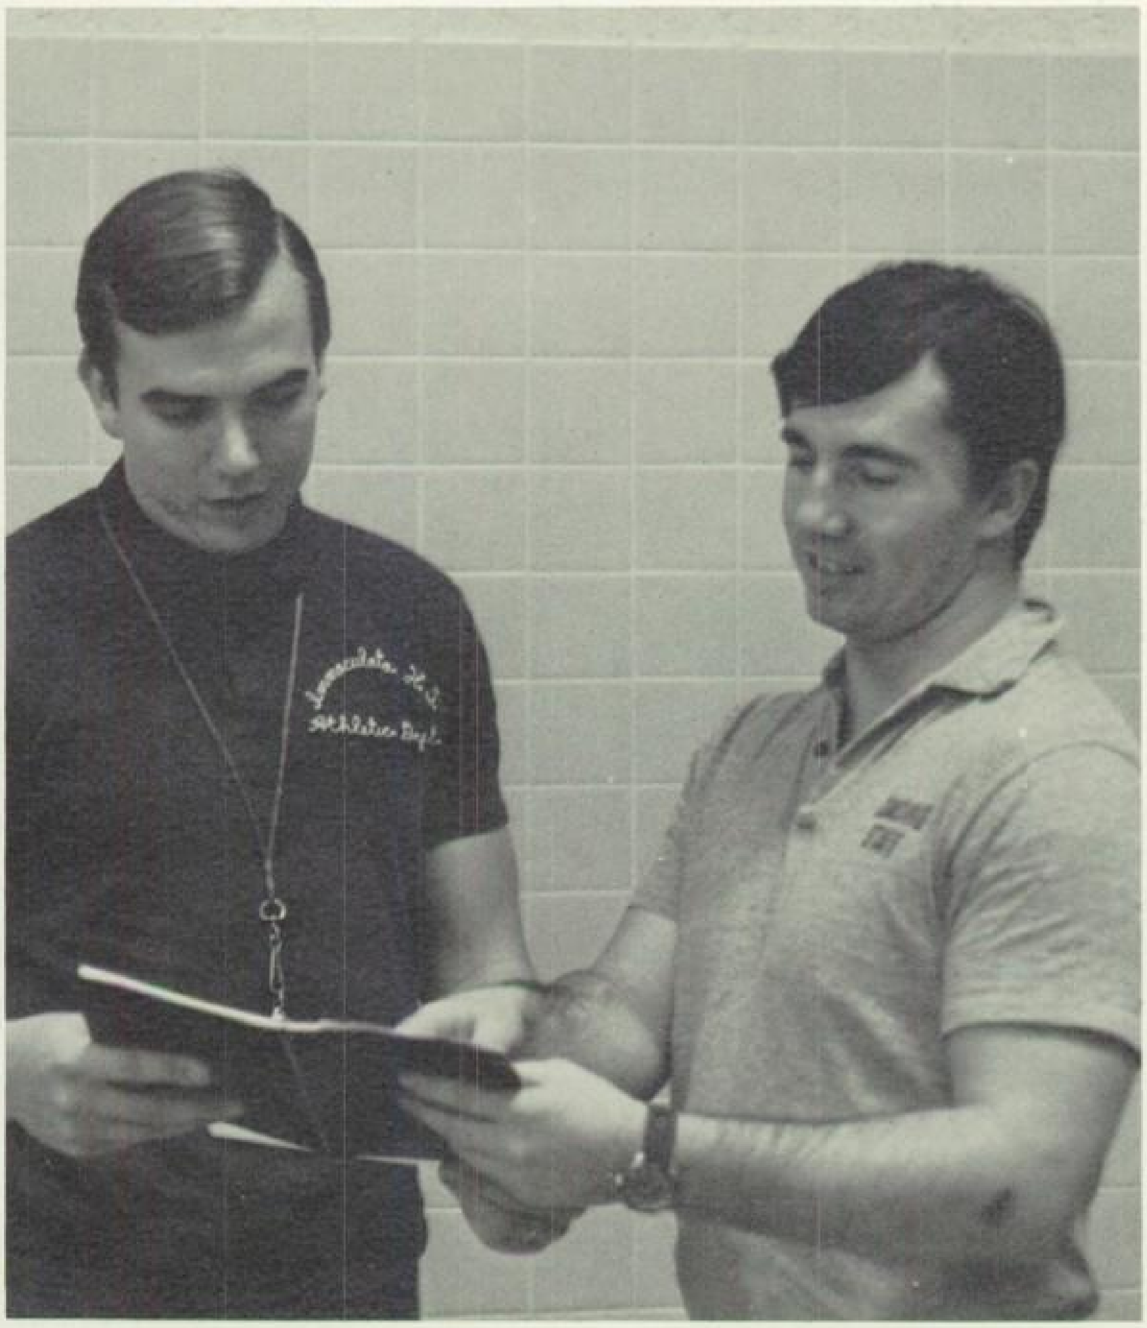
Blocker makes driving block and clears path for ball carrier: Jim Khoury (11), Mike Liscovitz (22).

Senior guard: Al Cama.

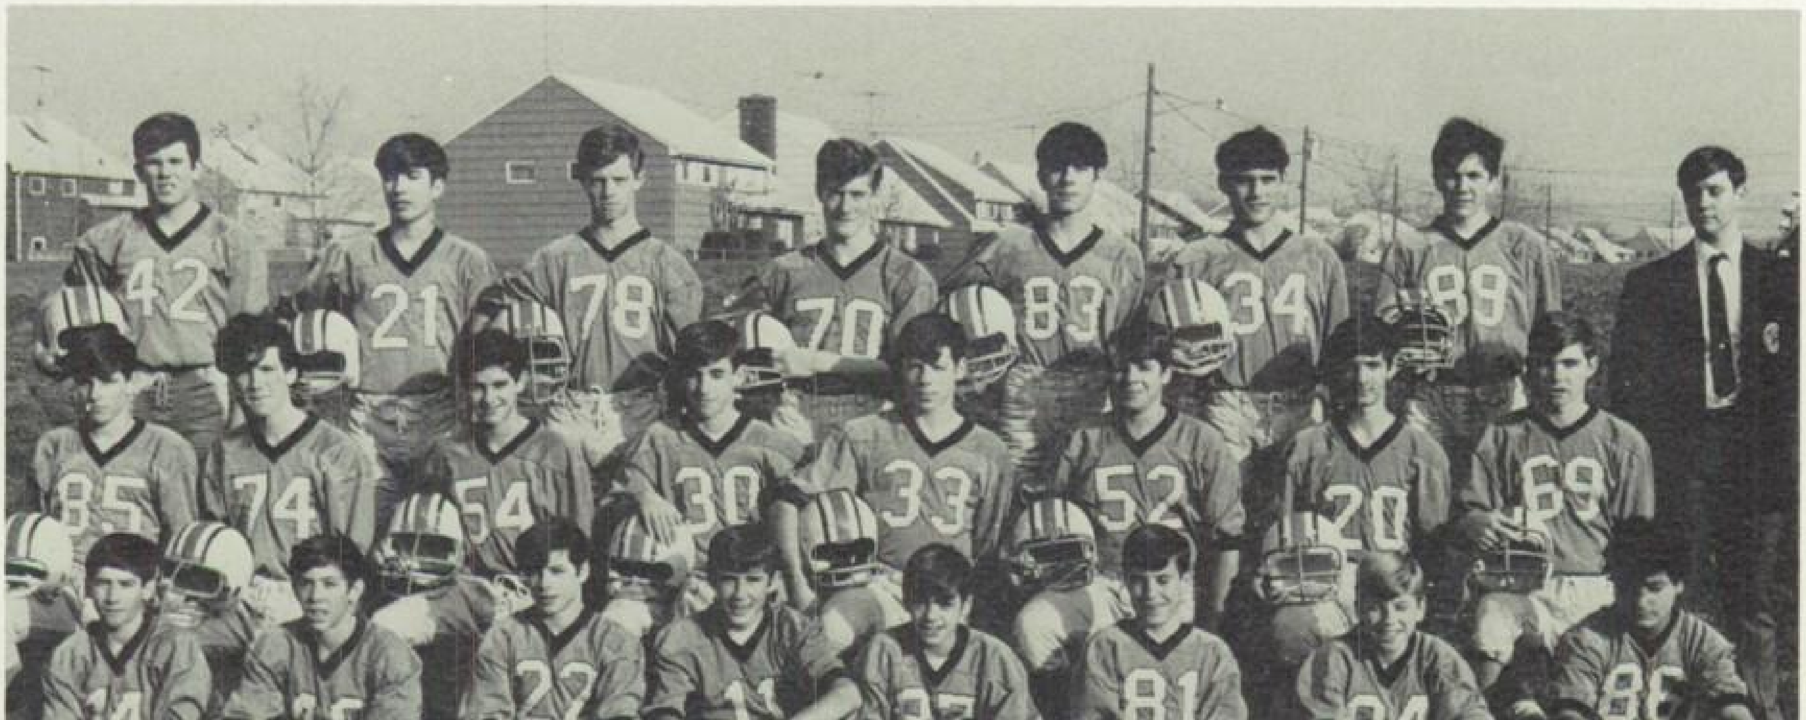
Senior center: Bruce Saller.

Freshman football is the beginning of training to become Varsity stars. This year through their spirit and excellent training the Freshmen learned the taste of victory. It is a pleasant experience and one that will no doubt provide incentive for future effort.



Assistant football coaches check practice schedules: Mr. Robert Sutton, Mr. Joseph Petrill.

Intent expressions at a pre-game pep rally: Assistant Coaches Dudka and Conti.



FRESHMAN FOOTBALL TEAM: FIRST ROW: Ray Kachmar, Joe Sweeney, Bob Fenlon, Jake Harrison, Mike Mesco, Jim Gibbons, Tom Mills, Art Gentile. THIRD ROW: Tim Kelly, Jay Welch, Ray Zupp, Chris Laggini, Bob Costello, Bill Lieve, Chris Tarrant.

CHEERLEADERS

The Spartans are the Greatest Yet! is one of the many cheers that Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders use to spur their teams on to victory or to bolster sagging spirits. Through their tremendous vocal support and excellence in gymnastics, the cheerleaders have always sustained the victorious, and sometimes downtrodden, Spartans. No matter how disastrous things may appear, "The Spartans will be victorious," is their motto. Encouraging words and radiant smiles are the trademarks of the Immaculata Cheerleaders. Sister Therese Inez is the unseen hand behind the Immaculata dynamos. Her spark is always there to ignite their flame, and her smile reflects the warmth of her praise.

F-I-G-H-T shouts enthusiastic co-captain: Sue Lunney.

Drill Team Captains prepare for the first game of the season: Jeanne Navin, Marguerite Zorzi, Susan Nolan.

Saxophonists clown while tuning: Ernie Poggi, Joe Reynolds, Joe O'Neill, Bob Leichte.

Drum Majorette signals for a hot-dog formation: Carla Sue Perantoni.

Majorettes: Maureen Sloan, Barb Sofranko, Eileen Todd, Marguerite Witmer, Lori Conrad, Peggy Loeffler, Mari Bowlby.

MARCHING BAND

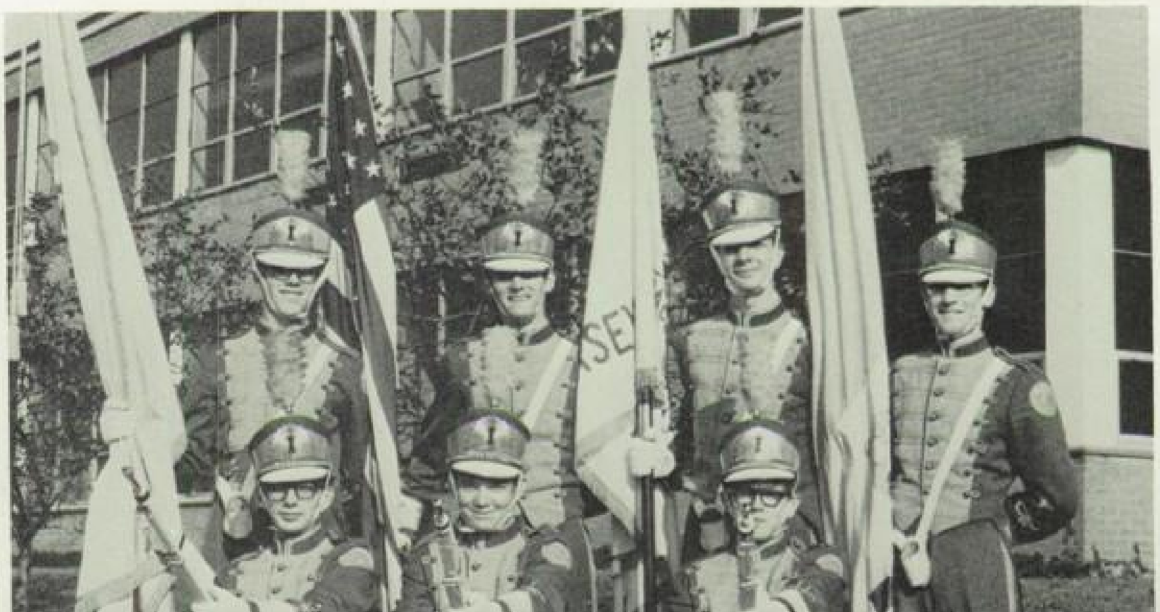
From the first pep rally to the Memorial Day Parade, Sister Ann Bernadette and Mr. John DiGiovanni instill in the marching band a real desire for accomplishment. The 1970-71 marching season has surpassed all others because of the dedicated participation of musicians, majorettes, color guard, and the drill team. The band's musical instruments actually come alive as it creates enthusiasm and spirit. This is possible only because of night practices which take place long after good little children should be in bed. The drill team, under the direction of Sister Miriam Clare, displays majestic pomp in its many routines. Sister Clare, a firm believer in the saying — Practice makes perfect — encourages the drill team to adopt this as their motto, also. These girls are not only successful on the field, but this year they have also proved themselves clever in the sewing department as they designed their own blue and white uniforms. After such a work-filled but rewarding season, only one word truly expresses the universal triumph felt by all of the participants . . . VICTORY!

Drill Team: FIRST ROW: Maureen Slade, Rita Sadorski, Maggie Grau, Ann Marie Dowd, Kathy O'Neill, Dot Abroscat, Sue Nolan. SECOND ROW: Pat Lavelle, Jeanne Navin, Carol Potenza, Hope Loeffler, Lisa DeFeo, Mary Lazor, Patty Trice. THIRD ROW: Judy Killeen, Marguerite Zorzi, Terry Kiss, Joan Tozzi, Donna Lukenda, Joann Demming, Mary Van Tyne. FOURTH ROW: Ellen Gasko, Ann Mushalko, Bridget Shovlin, Lillian Garcia, Michele Capano, Judy Baab.

Squad 5 is amused by an unseen but typical freshman: Henry Witmer, Tom Rhein, Carolyn Black, Jeanette Schug, Pat Dallessio.

Seniors harmonize during impromptu practice: Peggy McCaughey Dorianne Kabo, Shelly Garay.

Seniors come to the rescue of trumpeter in trouble: Mary Ivers, Jack Iacoviello, Judy Fidellow.



Military finesse displayed by Color Guard: KNEELING: Ken Buratti, Larry Brooks, Rich MacGillivray. STANDING: Ed Olkowski, John Bennett, Robert Dacuk, Thomas Corona.

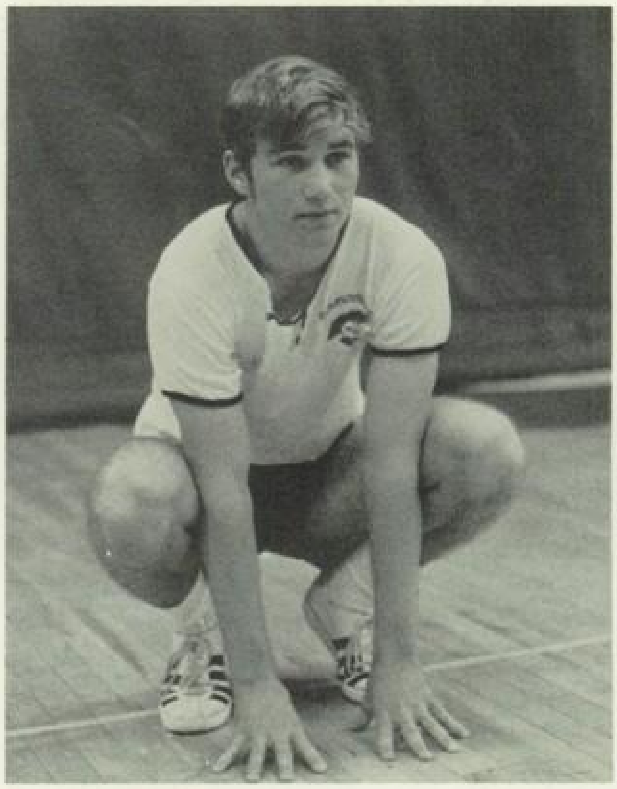
Band's percussion section poses before boarding the bus to Our Lady of the Valley: Michael Cahill, Mark Iasiello, Jeanette Vuocolo, Gerald Cahill, Marguerite Laggini, Lora Horner, Brian Grissler, Thomas Rickert.

Woodwinds transpose an arrangement of Raindrops Keep Fallin' on My Head: Gerry Gula, Mary Lou Harrison, Kathy Kelly, Ilona Wass.

Second hat makes weather a little more bearable: Marshall Garrison.

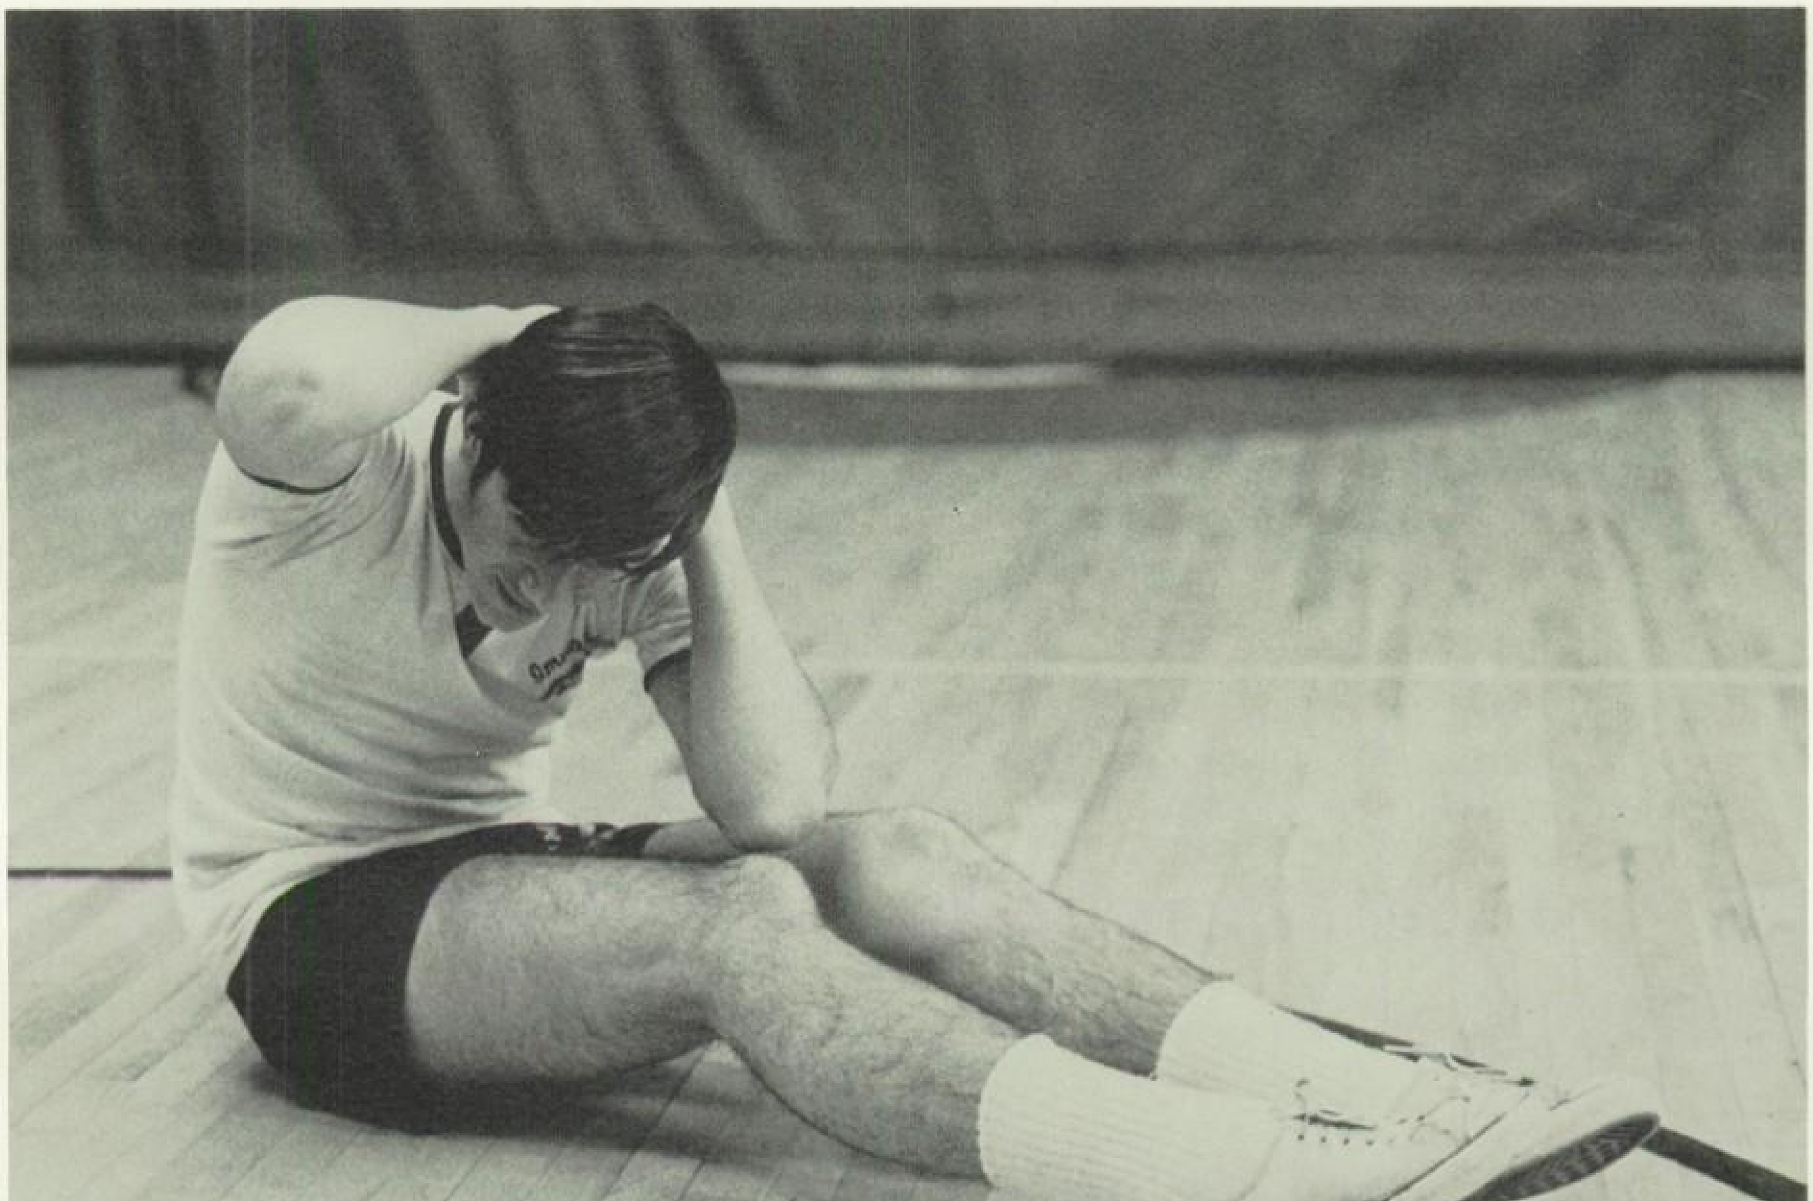
Concentration is essential for flutist to memorize Sweet Georgia Brown: Carol Kolb.

The Physical Fitness Team has much to be proud of, since they annually become finalists in the Marine Corps Physical Fitness Competition, thereby bringing honor to our school. Coach Victor Dudka knows all the in's and out's of physical fitness and inspires the boys to reach a very high score that they may maintain their excellent status. A continued interest in such a beneficial activity is sure to prove fruitful for all members in the future.



I can't remember if I was on 79 or 89: Pete Feury.

They say that squat-thrusts are the sure way to perfect co-ordination: Jim Welch.



Sit-ups aid senior member to achieve muscle tone: Gerry Tarrant.

Golf Players: FIRST ROW: Michael Tarentino, John Kelly, Coach Joseph Poplowski. SECOND ROW: Ed Cooper, Gene Maroti, Jim Laggini, Allen Stit.

Michael, watch that slice: Coach Joseph Poplowski, Michael Tarentino, Ed Cooper.

Fore . . . : Ed Cooper.

Congratulations are in order for the '71 Golf Team of IHS. This year, the boys have managed to match and excel the skill of their competitors. These include such arch-rivals as Bridgewater East and Somerville. Green Knoll Golf Course is the site for these trying matches.

We all realize that behind every successful team, there is a guiding coach. Our man on the green is Coach Joseph Poplowski. Coach Poplowski has been with IHS boys ever since their first years in golf. Both golfers and spectators appreciate everything he has contributed towards the success of the team.

Trying eagerly for a shot: Pat Nolan, Kathy Pachomski, Hope Loeffler, Joanne Hahn, Noreen Buckley.

Will it go in?: Pat Nolan.

Girls jump for the rebound: Hope Loeffler, Pat Nolan, Kathy Pachomski.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The '70-'71 girls' basketball season was one of sheer enthusiasm. Under the direction of Coach Lourdine Davies, the girls substituted victory for anxiety and teamwork for long hours of tedious practice. The Spartanettes found it most gratifying to win after playing in heavy competition; nevertheless, they were always the first to admit their setbacks and they did learn from them. Such a successful season was an impetus to underclass players who are anticipating an even better season next year.

Hands up!: Girls' Varsity Team.

HONOR STUDENTS

Twenty-six Immaculatans have brought distinction upon themselves and Immaculata by achieving the status of Honor Students; this number marks an all-time high in the history of the school. Students who have maintained an average of 85 in Religion and four other major subjects from freshman year to senior year, inclusive, are deserving of this honor. Good luck to these seniors who are at the crossroads of their lives and who apparently possess the requisites for a successful future.

Ring Day Ceremony climaxed by the blessing of the rings: Monsignor Kelly, Mike Harrison, Mark Manning.

I can't get it out of the bag: Barbara Maun.

Finally . . . : Mary McCann, Laureen Bowman.

Good-hearted Hap: Carol Potenza, Geraldine Gula, Henry Phillips.

One good turn deserves another: Mike Harrison, Mary Lou Harrison.

RING DAY

After much anticipation, Ring Day finally came for the seniors. Held early in autumn, the ceremony took place in the Little Theater. The importance of the ring was discussed by Mike Harrison, Hope Loeffler, and Mark Manning. Emphasis was placed on past memories, the excitement of Ring Day itself, and the hopes and expectations of the future; hence, themes centered around the ring as a reminder of the past, the present, and the future. A tremendous amount of satisfaction was felt by the Class of '71 upon receiving their rings. It was their first official recognition as seniors. This was something special; it distinguished them from the rest of the student body. Undoubtedly, on this day a great spirit of unity and happiness prevailed as the rings signified the accomplishments of the past four years. Hopes and joys were brought into focus by Ring Day and the Class of '71 realized that it was standing at the crossroads.

By Joe (Welch) — I think I've got it! Betsy Ross? No: Betsy Alvator!

A time for us to rest our feet!: Jim Ruff, Bonnie Tysenn, Joe Murphy, Sue Nolan.

A blossoming tree, a blossoming bouquet, a blossoming romance: Sam Wisniewski, Marguerite Zorzi.

A TIME FOR US

The 1970 Junior-Senior Prom, which was held at the Redwood Inn, was indeed "A Place for Us." The atmosphere of enchantment was enriched by shades of gold and green shimmering across the dance floor. These cherished memories will remain part of us for years to come. Congratulations are in order for the prom committee who were responsible for making the affair such a great success.

See Barr? See Ted?: C. Barr and Ted Kerin.

Our paths met here at Immaculata.
We learned to reach upward towards God as well as outward towards each other. Each day we branched out in an atmosphere of Love. Our Faith blossomed into Hope; our Spirit blossomed into
Joy, and we found Life here—
At the Crossroads.

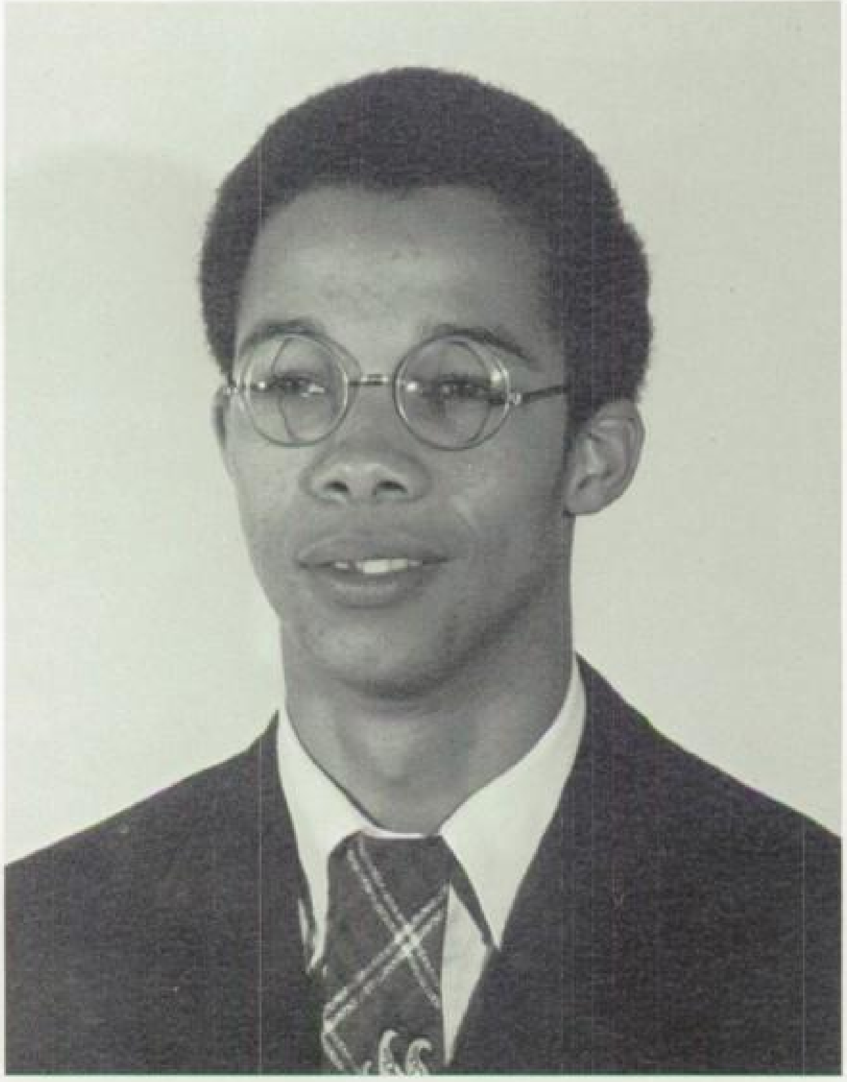
A Tribute to Our Friend



ARTHUR FREDERICK CHAMBRES

A friend is many things—
A smile, a helping hand, maybe just
Those silly expressions to let you know he cares—
He was your friend;
He was our friend;
He was Artie!
Some knew him for a long time;
Others, only briefly.
Yet he did so much to help in making us REAL.
Now that he's gone we'll miss him,
But we'll always be grateful for what he did for us.

THE CLASS OF '71

AUTOGRAPHS

Tom,

Good luck. You do need it. Have a safe and successful summer. See ya in September. Have fun during exam period and remember all our times in Mr. Reinke's class.

Again, good luck,

Marshall

prefer

Dear Tom,
To a very nice guy!
best of luck
in all you do!
Have a great Senior
year!
Always,
Joan

Tom,

Its been just great knowing you this year. I glad to see that you are already a succes and hope for future success for you in the future. Come out for Golf next year and I'm sure you'll make it,

Your friend,
Bill

To the golf pro himself, Tom

Get that golf score down so you can be #1 on the team (which will be never. Best of Luck !!!

Rich

Tom,
Remember the great French group.
Study that Chemistry (its very important) and get that golf game down to par. You're a kid. Have a great
summer. Joe

Tom
Chemistry hasn't been the best class by far.
Niether has English etc.
Better luck next year
Ernie Paggi

Tom,
People write stupid things in yearbooks when they can't think of anything intelligent. This is one of those times. Good luck!
Mike

Tom
Thanks for the help
in Alg-Tri I ~~[illegible]~~ sure needed it. Get your legs ready for marching in C.C.
next year.
Good Luck
Barry
